

TRAINERS

PAUL A. GARCIA, CPA/CFF, CVA has over 30 years' experience in all aspects of accounting, tax, consulting services, and litigation support. Paul is highly experienced in the taxation of closely held businesses and individuals as well as taxation of foreign corporations and non-resident aliens. Paul's civil litigation experience includes settlement negotiations, business valuations, shareholder/partner disputes, and the sale/purchase of business enterprises. Paul specializes in forensic and valuation matters for matrimonial dissolution matters. He works in collaboration with attorneys to evaluate income and expenses; asset and liability analysis; equitable property distributions; alimony and child support calculations; representation in mediations, court hearings, and trials. Paul also serves as a neutral forensic in matrimonial dispute cases working jointly with both husband and wife. Paul has been a civil court-appointed expert in Miami-Dade and Broward County, Florida. Paul may be reached at 305 448-0404 and at paul@paulgarciaacpa.com.

ROBERT J. MERLIN, ESQ. is the managing partner of Robert J. Merlin, P.A. in Coral Gables, Florida. The firm limits its practice to Marital and Family Law, especially Collaborative Family Law. Bob is Florida Bar Board Certified in Marital and Family Law and has been practicing law in the State of Florida for over 37 years. He is a member of The Florida Bar, the American Bar Association, the Dade County Bar, the Coral Gables Bar, the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals, the Florida Academy of Collaborative Professionals, the Collaborative Family Law Institute, the Collaborative Family Lawyers of South Florida and the South Palm Beach County Collaborative Law Group. Bob lectures regularly on Collaborative Family Law at the University of Florida Levin College of Law and to various organizations of lawyers and other professionals and he is a Qualified Collaborative Trainer. He is a past President of the Collaborative Family Law Institute, the Immediate Past President of the Florida Chapter of the Association of Family and Conciliation Courts, and he is on the Eleventh Judicial Circuit Court Parenting Coordinators Advisory Board. Bob spent seven years working on the Florida Collaborative Law Process Act, which was finally passed in March 2016. Bob is pleased to watch other attorneys and family professionals evolve their practices to peacemaking, in the best interest of our families. Bob can be contacted at 305-448-1555 or rmerlin@merlinlaw.com and his website is www.merlinlaw.com

ROSEMARIE S. ROTH, ESQ. is a member of the Florida Bar and the Family Law Section and has served on the Section's Mediation, Collaborative Law and Arbitration Committee as a chair and member of the Rules and Forms Committee. She presently serves on the Florida Bar Family Law Rules Committee. Rosemarie founded the Collaborative Family Law Institute and served as president from 1999-2009 and co-founded the Florida Academy of Collaborative Professionals in 2010 and served as president from 2010-2015. She is a member of the Miami-Dade County Bar Association, Florida Association for Women Lawyers, Past President South Miami Kendall Bar Association, and a member of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals. Rosemarie is a Collaborative Law Trainer, co-founded Florida Collaborative Trainers and meets the training standards established by the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals. For many years Rosemarie has provided training in the Interdisciplinary Collaborative Divorce Model. She has lectured for many years on Collaborative Law at the University of Miami Law School where she is an adjunct professor, teaching Collaborative Family Law. . She can be contacted by-email at rlsroth@aol.com or at her office at (305) 596-7303, website: www.rothfamilylaw.com and www.floridacollaborativetrainers.com.

LANA M. STERN, PH.D., is a Licensed Psychologist, Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist; Florida Supreme Court Certified Family Mediator and Parent Coordinator in private practice in the Coral Gables, Florida area for the past 30 years. She has been a member of the Collaborative Family Law Institute of Miami for the past 9 years, is a past Vice President, and serves on the Board, the membership, mentoring and marketing committees. She co-authored the chapter on “Collaborative Law” in the Florida Bar CLE book Dissolution of Marriage. She has written, presented and participated in numerous workshops throughout Florida about the “Role of the Mental Health Professional in Collaborative Divorce”. Dr. Stern is a qualified Collaborative Law Trainer, meets the training standards established by the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals and provides training in the Interdisciplinary Collaborative Divorce Model. She co-founded “Florida Collaborative Trainers” an interdisciplinary training group in 2011 and has presented training workshops to attorneys, mental health professionals, mediators and financial professionals throughout Florida. She was an Adjunct Professor at Florida International University for 8 years, supervising Master’s level, Mental Health and School Counselors during their Practicum and Internship and co-taught the first “Collaborative Divorce” workshop at the University of Miami Law School. She has worked extensively in collaborative divorce cases as the neutral mental health professional. . Dr. Stern can be reached at lmsternphd@aol.com and her website at www.drланamstern.com and www.floridacollaborativetrainers.com.

Collaborative Family Law Institute, Inc. (Miami)

Counties Served: Miami-Dade and Broward

Website: www.collaborativefamlaw.com

President: Evan Marks, Esq.
Marks and West, PA
100 SE 2nd Street, Suite 2700
Miami, FL 33131
(305) 374-0210
emarks@marksandwest.com

Representatives:

Evan Marks, Esq. emarks@marksandwest.com

