About This Seminar

In 2015, all Pennsylvania attorneys will be required to have 10 hours of substantive CLE hours and 2 hours of ethics.

This seminar will not only provide substantive information from a panel of forensic experts that should be extremely helpful in preparing for trial and sentencing, but in addition, valuable tactical information from seasoned trial attorneys about when to use experts, how to cross-examine and discredit experts, and new and important ideas about use of experts in various areas, including neuro-science and mental health.
