

Growing Kids

A parenting program for women with pre-schoolers

Programming for women will focus on the daily demands of parenting pre-schoolers, with practical ideas and group support. Childminding is provided and children are welcome.

Make new friends, enjoy nutritious snacks, take home resources to use every day.

The program is free and open to any woman caring for a pre-school age child.

Thursdays from 9:15 to 11:15
September 17 to November 19

The program is free but registration is required. Space is limited so register early. Registration begins August 27.
