2nd Annual Community Integration and Recovery Academy

Please join Magellan Behavioral Health in Louisiana for the 2nd Annual Community Integration and Recovery Academy (CIRA).

The 2nd CIRA Conference will explore the need for creating and implementing a recovery-oriented culture across the lifespan with a focus on the Adoption, Adaption and Evolution of peer services.

CIRA represent a unique opportunity in Louisiana for primary and behavioral health care providers, peers, families and peer specialists to:

- ✓ Learn from national experts about efforts to support and enhance community-based behavioral health services
- ✓ Gain knowledge around what constitutes peer-centered services across the lifespan
- ✓ Participate in and network with a learning community of individuals who want to work toward the transformation of Louisiana's system of care
- ✓ Participate in a diverse slate of presentations focused on the diversity of peer services and how to support peer positions in Louisiana

Guest Faculty for the 2nd Annual CIRA

- Greg Dicharry Greg Dicharry, the national youth empowerment director at Magellan Health, developed the program MY LIFE (Magellan Youth Leaders Inspiring Future Empowerment), which is one of the Nation's leading youth empowerment programs for youth who experience mental health, substance use and/or foster care related challenges.
- Robert Blue Robert Blue is the Race Equity Administrator at Magellan Health in Louisiana. Robert is a member of the United States Psychiatric Rehabilitation Association Multicultural Committee and is the Multicultural Committee Chair for NAMI Louisiana.
- Charles G. Curie Charles G. Curie is the principal and founder of THE CURIE GROUP, LLC, a management and consulting firm specializing in working with national and international leaders in public and private healthcare, especially mental health and substance abuse services. He is the former SAMHSA administrator from 2001-2006.
- Thomas Lane, CRPS Thomas Lane is the Senior Director of Consumer and Recovery for Magellan's Public Sector Division and provides leadership and guidance in promoting the concepts of recovery, resilience, and wellness throughout Magellan's Behavioral Health Services systems of care.
