Note: Classes are subject to cancellation up to two weeks in advance of the class in the event sufficient registration is not received. Please register today to avoid cancellation. No refunds one week prior to class.

This course discusses the basic legal principles of contract formation, subcontract negotiation, project performance and the legal rights and responsibilities of all parties, because the time to assess the risk of collection is not when the receivable is 90 days old, but before the contract is signed.

Following this course, participants will be able to:

- Identify ways to avoid risk of nonpayment
- Recognize legal principles of contracts
- Discuss legal rights and responsibilities
- Explain typical risks associated with subcontracts

Participants who successfully complete this workshop will be awarded 6 Continuing Education Hours.
