

GLENVIEW NORTHBROOK COALITION FOR YOUTH

Empowering our youth to live safe, drug and alcohol free lives through community and family partnership

Raising Resilient Children Strategies for Parenting in a Complex World

Tuesday, May 3, 2016
Northbrook Village Hall
1225 Cedar Lane, Northbrook IL
9:30-11am

Panel presentation with guest speakers:

Detective Marc Fainman, Investigations Unit Northbrook Police Dept.

Gary Hill, Psy.D, LMFT, CSADC, GRH Consulting LLC

Carole Hynes, RN, MS, CS, Program Manager, Dept. of Psychiatry, Evanston Day School, NorthShore University Health System

Kate Mahoney, LCSW, Executive Director PEER Services

Shari Nivasch, LCPC, Clinical Counselor Northbrook Police Dept.

Presentation facilitated by Jennifer Pearson, District 225 Director of Special Education

Our ever changing world presents great opportunities but also great challenges for our children. Research has helped to identify skills and assets children need to navigate their complex social environment in order to develop into well-rounded, well-adjusted young adults. Learn some key strategies to help guide children in developing skills and making healthy decisions to lead them toward bright futures.

This is a free program for parents of junior high, middle and high school children and community members.

For information, contact Tricia Williams at 224-571-1845

GNCY representative organizations are:

School Districts, Youth Services of Glenview/Northbrook, Glenview and Northbrook Police Departments, PEER Services, Northfield Township, Glenview Park District, NorthShore University Health Systems, Rotary of Northbrook, NSSED, parents and community members.

This flyer was developed under grant #SP020879 from the Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP) and Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). The views, policies and opinions expressed by the Glenview Northbrook Coalition for Youth are those of its members and do not necessarily reflect those of ONDCP, SAMHSA, or HHS.