Teen Writers & Readers: Do you find fictional characters fascinating, at least as irresistible as real ones? Have you ever dreamed of publishing your fiction—or wondered how your favorite authors got their first books out into the world? Do you have a powerful story to tell? ♦ If you answered YES to any of these questions, our workshop may be perfect for you!

As a TeenSpeak enrollee, you'll take your story-passion to a new level. Come share your fiction with peers, a friendly New York editor and agent, and published author. Discover insiders' tips to increase your enjoyment of novels, movies, myths—identify the OH, WOW! factor that you love.

♦ TeenSpeak also helps adults in a concurrent workshop publish youth novels. Your feedback can make a difference—as you make leaps in your own story or personal essay writing.

SCHEDULE: Thursday 5:00 PM to Sunday 1:30 PM. Lively sessions may include Memory Magic, Improv as a Gateway to Character, Discover Your Voice, Write to Publish, Scenes, Revise & Shine! ♦ Before the workshop, choose enrollees' samples to read: one adult's teen novel, teens' and adults' shorter pieces. ♦ At the workshop, discuss these manuscripts with our pros. Juicy and fun! Also enjoy character collage, plot treasure map, movie for enjoyment and learning, beach s'mores.

COST: Tuition $549; limited scholarships. Fee includes parent-chaperoned lodging in a beachfront condo; optional feedback on your writing from supportive editor, agent, and peers; selected adult focus sessions; meals, including a teens-only pizza party.

I'm ready to write at a deeper level than ever." — Rachel, 16 ♦ "Amazing opportunity, really fun." — James, 17 ♦ "I learned to foreshadow plot so readers have hints about what the story involves, but still be surprised by critical events. I greatly recommend this workshop." — Sam, 15 ♦ "This workshop changed my life." — Jordan, 16 ♦ "I learned to create realistic characters and got tips on my college essays. It was exciting to learn there's a job market out there for what I love." — Jacqueline, 17 ♦ "A major asset in revising my novel." — Maya, 13 ♦ "Writing is good. Reading is good. S'mores are good. Beaches are good. But writing and reading while eating s'mores on a beach is beyond good. If you do it with friends, it's just amazing squared." — Audrey, 13
