

CI<sup>G</sup> | CRITICAL ILLNESS

Over 1.6 million new cancer cases are expected to be diagnosed in 2012.*

Chances are you know someone who's been diagnosed with a critical illness such as cancer, a heart attack (myocardial infarction), stroke, major organ transplant, end-stage renal failure or coronary artery disease. You can't help but notice the strain it's placed on the person's life—both physically and emotionally. What's not so obvious is the impact on that person's personal finances. While the person is busy getting well, the bills continue to pile up.

Would you have the money to cover the out-of-pocket expenses such as:

- Transportation to a distant medical facility.
- Specialized treatment costs.
- Living expenses like rent, mortgage, and utility bills.

IT'S INSURANCE FOR DAILY LIVING:

Aflac pays cash benefits directly to you, unless you choose otherwise. This means that you will have added financial resources to help with medical costs or ongoing living expenses. Aflac critical illness insurance plans** are designed to provide you with cash benefits, such as the following:
