

A Screening & Discussion of The Documentary

Wednesday, April 15
3-5pm in Room 229

Q & A to follow with Film Director Kimberly Bautista

This award-winning documentary film takes an intimate look at violence against women in Guatemala by chronicling the three-year journey of Rebeca as she tries to hold her sister's killer accountable.

This event is sponsored by the Fullerton College Ethnic Studies Department, Cadena Cultural Center, the UCLA Latin American Institute and supported by the Fullerton College H.O.P.E. Club

For more information, please contact Fullerton College Faculty Amber Gonzalez, AGonzalez@fullcoll.edu