Grand Rounds Webex Remote Access and Recordings

Can't get to a live Grand Rounds? Interested in a topic that took place a recently? The CME program is offering these new options for recorded educational activities:

Important Notes:

All Grand Rounds are recorded, and available on Sharepoint (under Grand Rounds videos on the right hand side of the Sharepoint page) AFTER the 10th of the month following the Grand Rounds. They are also available on the Physician Portal in the following month

When entering the Webex presentation, please be patient—presentations begin shortly after the designated start time.

- Connect on your computer via the link provided for the scheduled presentation. You will be able to hear the speaker and see the powerpoint presentation. Presentations generally begin a few minutes after the scheduled time, so please be patient. Please be sure to turn OFF your camera, or the audience will be able to see you.
- Or dial the Join by Phone number and enter the Meeting Number and Password provided for each session (you will not be able to follow along with the powerpoint using the Join by Phone method)
- Remote participants may "self claim Category 2 CME credit if they find educational value in the session". Please maintain your own records for any CME activities where you are self claiming credit. (Category 1 CME credit available only for participants who attend in person and credit for attendance is maintained by the CME Program Coordinator)
- To obtain a recording of an older Grand Rounds, please visit Sharepoint and look for Grand Rounds Videos on the right hand side of the page. If you are a Physician, go to the Physician Portal, and locate the "Grand Rounds Videos and Webex Recordings" in the lower right hand column. You may self claim Category 2 credit for any historical Grand Rounds or Webex that you view.
