

1. Popularly known as bird's eye chilies, phrik kii noo—the hottest of Thai chilies—literally means:
 - c) mouse droppings

<http://thaifood.about.com/od/glossary/g/chillies.htm>

2. James Garfield was the first president to campaign in two languages, English and:
 - a) German

<http://www.ipl.org/div/potus/jagarfield.html>

3. With its name derived, possibly, from a loose translation of the Spanish La Llorona, this Texas arroyo crosses Interstate 10 between Seguin and San Antonio. It is called:
 - b) Woman Hollering Creek

http://www.mysanantonio.com/life/life_columnists/paula_allen/article/Woman-Hollering-Creek-s-name-evokes-chilling-3979750.php