

Paul Scissons, who has worked in sales and marketing for Ottawa Renovates Magazine for the past 7 years, one of the Ride's sponsors and who also took part in the Ride shared his thoughts about the day's events. "The event was well organized and everyone had a good time." "Habitat for Humanity GO and Lagois did a super job!" "The pulled pork was very tasty as well as the fries!" "It was a nice touch that Habitat for Humanity GO volunteers stayed closely behind the riders for support and to make sure the Ride ran smoothly." "Habitat for Humanity Greater Ottawa is a great cause and I'm very happy to support them!"
