

R & A PETRILLA

Antiquarian booksellers and appraisers since 1970

P.O. Box 306 Roosevelt, NJ 08555 609.426.4999

petrillabooks@gmail.com

www.petrillabooks.com

Catalog 267: Road Trip!

A catalog for summer, when families and drivers traditionally take to the open road.

Prices include shipping in the US. Shipping overseas at cost. All items are guaranteed as described. We always welcome your orders. – Bob & Alison

1. Austin, Guy K. COVERED WAGON, 10 H.P. Being the Further Adventures of an English Family in its Travels across America. London: Geoffrey Bles, 1936. First Edition. 287pp. Bound in red cloth, yellow lettering; top edge of binding sunned, gift inscription on endpaper. In a chipped dust wrapper. 8.75" x 5.5" Very Good in Good dust-jacket. Original Cloth. The British author drove his wife and two kids in a Plymouth from New York to California in 1934. Expenses are noted, along with comments on the Great Depression, and their love of the western states. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 59.] (#038143) $50.00
2. Bedell, Mary Crehore . MODERN GYPSIES: The Story of a Twelve Thousand Mile Motor Camping Trip Encircling the United States. Photographs by the Author. NY: Brentano's, (1924). First Edition. 262pp; frontispiece and 33 plates from photographs, plus route map. Bound in pictorial green cloth, stamped in yellow, black and gilt (by the Decorative Designers). Bright copy. 7.75" x 5.25" Very Good in dust-jacket. Original Cloth. The route map shows that the author and her professor husband drove their Hupmobile and camped from Charleston to Florida, then across the deep South and Southwest, up through California to Oregon and Seattle, then eastward through the national parks to Chicago, and home to New York. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 41.] (#038132) $85.00
3. Bliss, Carey S. AUTOS ACROSS AMERICA: A Bibliography of Transcontinental Automobile Travel, 1903-1940. Los Angeles: Dawson's Book Shop, 1972. Limited Edition. pp: (xxi), 60, colophon; frontispiece and 10 plates showing title-pages. Bound in pictorial green cloth, gilt-stamped cover and spine. Limited to 315 copies, printed by Saul & Lillian Marks at the

Plantin Press, Los Angeles, February 1972. Presentation copy, inscribed and signed on the title page, "...Love, Carey." 8.75" x 5.75" Fine. Original Cloth.

The British author drove his wife and two kids in a Plymouth from New York to California in 1934. Expenses are noted, along with comments on the Great Depression, and their love of the western states. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 59.] (#038144) $85.00

4. British Columbia. THE BANFF JASPER HIGHWAY: Descriptive Guide, by M.B. Williams. Saskatoon, Sask.: H.R. Larson, 1963. Revised Edition. pp: ix, 136; illus from photographs, map. Gives a mile-by-mile description of this road through the Canadian Rockies, passing through four national parks. 8.5" x 5.5" Very Good in Very Good dust-jacket. Hardcover. (#BOOKS009084I) $15.00

5. California / Automobile Club of Southern California. MOTORING TO SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. Los Angeles: Touring Bureau of the Automobile Club, [1935]. First Edition. 32pp. Pictorial white wrappers. 7.5" x 4.5" Fine. Original Wrappers. Details a number of routes to San Diego from various parts of the West. An ad on the back cover states: "This year Motor to the great California Pacific International Exposition at San Diego, opening May 29." [WorldCat locates only two holdings.] (#037980) $50.00

6. California, Coachella Valley. COACHELLA VALLEY DESERT TRAILS: The Salton Sea Saga and The Romance and Sex Life of the Date. By E.F. Shields. Indio, CA: Shields Date Gardens, 1957. 16th edition. 40pp; 9 maps, illus from photographs. Describes five automobile tours of the Coachella Valley area of the great Colorado Desert of California, with date-growing info. 8.5" x 5.5" Fine. Pictorial Paper Covers. (#BOOKS013947I) $10.00

7. California, Los Angeles. MT. WILSON, 6000 Feet High - MT. WILSON OBSERVATORY. Every day in the Year, your own car or by stage. Los Angeles: Geo. Rice & Sons, Circa 1920s. Original edition. Broadsheet, folded to eight panels; 11 illus from photographs, small map. 9" x 16" Near Fine.

The Hooker 100-inch telescope on Mt. Wilson was the largest telescope in the world from 1917 to 1948 when the 200-inch telescope was built on Palomar Mountain 90 miles to the southeast. Soon after the Mt. Wilson Observatory opened, a brisk tourist trade developed. This brochure includes a timetable of daily trips up and down the mountain, and describes accommodations and meals at the Mount Wilson Hotel and Bungalows. (#033181) $15.00

8. Carpenter, Edwin H. DRIVING FROM THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER TO THE PACIFIC COAST FIFTY YEARS AGO: Diary of Edwin H. Carpenter. Edited and annotated by his wife and son. South Pasadena, California: Printed by Grant Dahlstrom at The Castle Press, 1967. First Edition. pp: (iv), 10, (1); frontispiece and nine other photographs from the trip. Printed cream wrappers. 9" x 6" Fine in dust-jacket. Original Wrappers. One of 500 copies printed. The young family left Burlington, Iowa in 1917, driving a 1913 Cadillac. They took the southern route, west through Dodge City, Las Vegas, Santa Fe, Flagstaff, and on to Los Angeles. Mileage and expenses are reported. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 32.] (#038138) $25.00

9. Cepek, Dick and Walt Wheelock. ROUGH RIDING. Glendale, California: La Siesta Press, (1968). First Edition. 36pp; illustrated from photographs. Chapters include: Backcountry Roads; Tires & Wheels; Sand; Rocky Roads; Stream Crossings; Mexicaneeing; Food & Water; Flight Plans; &c. Pictorial, yellow paper covers, printed in red; faint dampmark at top of spine. not affecting text block. 8.5" x 5.5" Very Good. Pictorial Stiff Wrappers. Extolls the adventure in driving jeeps on back roads. (#037586) $10.00

10. Champlin, Helen & others. SPORTSMANLIKE DRIVING...HOW TO DRIVE. Washington: American Automobile Assn, 1947. Later printing. pp: viii, 118, index; 63 drawings in text. Has sections on car operation, maintenance, shifting, braking, turning, parking, signals, etc. 9" x 6" Very Good. Original Wraps. (#BOOKS008475I) $10.00
11. Chicago Millwork Supply Co. GARAGE DOORS: America's Greatest Sash and Door House. Chicago: Millwork Supply Co., 1920. First Edition. 16pp. Contains detailed descriptions, specifications and prices. 6.25" x 3.5" Folded and laid in is a form-letter from the company on their letterhead and dated 1920 as well as a two-page Storm Sash circular. Fine. Original Wraps. This small catalog covers all necessary materials for building one's own garage in 1920: lumber for framework; folding, rolling, gliding, and swinging garage doors; garage windows and casement sash; various types of roofing, paint and wallboard; hardware; ready-built garages; &c. (#033716) $25.00
12. Chrysler Corporation, De Soto Division. DE SOTO: AMERICA'S SMARTEST LOW-PRICED CAR. Detroit: Chrysler Corp., 1937. First Edition. (24)pp, black and white; illustrated throughout from interior and exterior photographs of De Soto automobiles. Also shown are the De Soto assembly line, chassis cutaways, engine, safety ("every inch is steel"), seating, cushioned ride, handling, ventilation, &c. The 7-passenger sedan has "995.00" in pencil. Also seen are the Touring Sedan, Touring Brougham ("955.00"), Coupe with luggage deck, Convertible Sedan, and Convertible Coupe. Pictorial wrappers. 10" x 9" Very Good. Pictorial Paper Covers. [Not seen in WorldCat.] (#037984) $60.00
13. Colorado. SEEING COLORADO SPRINGS AND THE PIKES PEAK REGION WITH THE PIKES PEAK AUTO LIVERY--PIERCE ARROW CARS: Pioneer Operators of the West. Manitou Springs, Colo.: Pikes Peak Auto Livery, circa 1935. Original edition. (12)pp, 9" x 4", opens to 9" x 24". Describes seven different trips in detail; illus from photographs, four-panel map. Printed in green and orange. Very Good. Printed Self-wrappers. (#037974) $40.00
14. Dunn, Edward D. DOUBLE-CROSSING AMERICA BY MOTOR: Routes and Ranches of the West. With 80 Illustrations and Maps. NY: G.P. Putnam's Sons, 1933. First Edition. 251pp; 80 sketch maps and vignette drawings. Bound in rose cloth, black lettering, pictorial endpapers, top edges stained red. 7.5" x 5" Very Good in dust-jacket. Original Cloth. Dunn and his family of five made a 35-day road trip from New York through Kansas City, Santa Fe, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Reno, Salt Lake City, Yellowstone, and Chicago, returning through Niagara Falls to New York City. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 58] (#037993) $45.00
15. Dunn, Edward D. DOUBLE-CROSSING AMERICA BY MOTOR: Routes and Ranches of the West. With 80 Illustrations and Maps. NY: G.P. Putnam's Sons, 1933. First Edition. 251pp; 80 maps and text vignettes. Bound in rose cloth, black lettering on cover and spine, top edges rose, pictorial endpapers. 7.5" x 5" Very Good. Original Cloth. Dunn with his wife and four kids drove from New York to Kansas City, Santa Fe, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Reno, Salt Lake City, Yellowstone, Chicago, Niagara Falls, and back to New York City in 35 days. And those wonderful children never once asked, are we there yet? [Bliss, Autos Across America, 58.] (#038147) $45.00
16. England - Wales. MOTOR ROAD MAP OF NORTHERN ENGLAND & WALES (backed by) MOTOR ROAD MAP OF SOUTHERN ENGLAND & WALES: Bacon's Reversible Maps. London: Johnston & Bacon, 1954. Broadsheet, 30" x 40" folds to 10" x 4.5".

Canvas backing is sandwiched between the two maps; separations at several folds, some old tape.
Good. . (#BOOKS007364I) $15.00

17. Eubank, Victor. LOG OF AN AUTO PRAIRIE SCHOONER: Motor Pioneers on the "Trail to Sunset." An Account of the first through Tourist Automobile Train (Limited) from New York to Los Angeles. Van Nuys, California: Printed by Richard J. Hoffman, 1984. First Separate Edition. 15pp, colophon. Reprinted from the February 1912 issue of Sunset Magazine for the 17th biennial Roxburghe-Zamorano meeting, October 27-28, 1984. Bound in green wrappers, tied, cover title in black. 9" x 6" Fine in dust-jacket. Original Wrappers.
Foreword by Carey S. Bliss, author of Autos Across America. The "automobile train" drivers motored 4,025 miles over 33 days of running time, following the Oregon Trail, the Santa Fe Trail, west through New Mexico and Arizona, then north through San Diego to Los Angeles. (#038136)
$35.00

18. Europe. MOTOR TOURS IN GREAT BRITAIN, IRELAND, AND ON THE CONTINENT: Embracing England & Wales, Lowlands & Highlands of Scotland, Northern Ireland, Irish Free State, France, Switzerland, Austria, The Dolomites, Holland & Belgium, The Rhine, Bavaria, Oberammergau. Season 1930. NY: Thos. Cook & Son and Wagon-Lits Co., 1930. First Edition. 88pp; illus from photographs and maps throughout the text. String-tied tan wrappers, printed in red. 8.5" x 5" Very Good. Original Wrappers.
[WorldCat does not record this title.] (#037534) $40.00

19. Flagg, James Montgomery. BOULEVARDS ALL THE WAY--MAYBE! Being an Artist's Truthful Impression of the U.S.A. from New York to California and Return, by Motor. Illustrated. NY: George H. Doran, (1925). First Edition. 225pp; frontispiece and 12 plates by the author. Bound in gray cloth, red lettering on cover and spine; scattered foxing on edges of text block. 7.75" x 5" Very Good in dust-jacket. Original Cloth.
Flagg and his wife crossed the country by automobile from New York to Los Angeles. He relates a number of experiences with bad roads and poor accommodations, which seem humorous in retrospect. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 45.] (#038131) $75.00

20. Florida, St. Petersburg. 1937 OFFICIAL GUIDE: ST. PETERSBURG AND FLORIDA'S GULF COAST: with an additional map. St. Petersburg, FL: Griffith Advertising Agency, 1936. First Edition. 96pp; text illus from photographs. Laid in is a two-page map of Davis Causeway and Gandy Toll Bridge, published by Boyd's Service Station and Free Zoo. 8" x 5.25" Very Good. Pictorial Paper Covers. (#BOOKS013867I) $20.00

21. Ford Motor Company. FORD 60 FOR 1937: The Economy Car for the Farmer. Detroit, Michigan : Ford Motor Co., (1937). First Edition. (12)pp; text illustrated throughout from photographs, printed in full color on coated stock. Pictorial wrappers with a full-cover illustration of two farmers admiring a blue Ford. 5.75" x 7.5" Very Good. Pictorial Stiff Original WrappersWrappers .
This booklet presents the 1937 Ford V-8, "more than ever the universal car." Shown are full-color views of the Tudor Sedan, the new Ford "60" Tudor Touring Sedan, the new Ford "60" Fordor Sedan, and the new Ford "60" Coupe (5 Windows). Accompanied by background sketches and promotional text.. [Not seen in WorldCat.] (#037957) $60.00

22. Ford Motor Company. FORD PREFECT: The car for all occasions. Dagenham, England: Ford Motor Company Limited, (1948). First Edition. Broadsheet, illustrated in full color, showing seven (7) views of the four-door Ford Prefect Saloon with various romantic backgrounds. Opens to 20" x 24", folds twice to small folio size. Original vertical crease, minor finger smudges on back. Very Good. Printed Self-wrappers.

The Ford Prefect was introduced in the UK in 1938, ceased production during World War II, and was resurrected in 1945, eventually becoming a car of choice for hot-rod builders. [Not seen in WorldCat.] (#037977) $50.00

23. Gannett, Lewis. SWEET LAND. Illustrated with drawings by Ruth Chrisman Gannett. Garden City: Doubleday, Doran, 1934. First Edition. pp: viii, 237; occasional vignettes. Bound in green cloth, paper spine label; minor dampmark to fore-edge of covers, dust wrapper chipped. 7.25" x 4.5" Very Good in Good dust-jacket. Original Cloth.

The account of a month's holiday, exploring America in their Ford V-8. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 57.] (#038129) $45.00

24. General Motors, Oldsmobile Division. OLDSMOBILE SERIES SIXTY: Introducing to the low-price field traditional Oldsmobile quality, performance, fine-car features and acknowledged style leadership. Detroit: General Motors Sales Corp., 1938. First Edition. (32)pp; text illustrated throughout from photographs, printed in sepia on white stock. Pictorial self-wrappers. 7.5" x 9.5" Very Good. Printed Self-wrappers.

Presenting the Oldsmobile Sixty as the company's third line of motor cars, this profusely illustrated brochure shows the club coupe, business coupe, two-door sedan, and four-door sedan. Included are full descriptions of Series 70 (business coupe, club coupe, two-door sedan, four-door sedan, convertible coupe) as well as Series 80 (business coupe, club coupe, two-door sedan, four-door sedan, convertible coupe). Seen are full views of all exteriors, along with pictures and promotional text devoted to chassis, ride, bodies, handling, automatic transmission, safety, interiors, etc. Quite an elaborate brochure. [Not seen in WorldCat.] (#037955) $75.00

25. Germany. AUTOKARTE: DEUTSCHLAND UND ANGRENZENDE WESTGEBIETE / GERMANY AND ADJOINING WEST REGIONS. Berne: Kummerly & Frey, 1950.

Broadside, folds to 9" x 5". Has cover titles in German, English, French, and Italian. 36" x 30" Very Good. . (#BOOKS007366I) $15.00

26. Hastings Pavement Company. ASPHALT BLOCKS ON COUNTRY ROADS. NY: Hastings Pavement Co., 1911. First Edition. 12pp; nine (9) illustrations from photographs. Bound in pictorial white wrappers, the cover showing folks in an early automobile speeding down a paved country road. 6.75" x 4.75" Fine. Original Wrappers.

Photographs show men at work, paving rural roads with concrete blocks and the resultant "dustless roadways." [WorldCat finds only the Smithsonian holding.] (#038067) $50.00

27. Hubbard, Elbert. THE AGE OF THE AUTO: By Elbert Hubbard (Fra Elbertus). East Aurora, NY: Roycrofters, 1910. 1926 edition. (24)pp, occasional decorations, printed in black and orange. "Published for GM Men and Women" (1926 version). 7.75" x 5.75" Very Good. Original Wrappers.

"Come to East Aurora and tramp the hills with me! ... Or, if you prefer, I'll take you out in my auto for a whirl and a whizz and give you a ride that will make your hair curl.--Elbert Hubbard." (#038211) $35.00

28. Hudson Motor Car Company. PERFORMANCE UNLIMITED! NEW HUDSON HORNET: Introducing the H-145 Engine with Miracle H-Power. . Detroit: Hudson Motor Car Co., 1950. First Edition. (8)pp; illustrated throughout in color, extended captions and detailed text, printed on coated white stock. Pictorial paper covers; gutter margins of two leaves mildly scarred. 8" x 10" Very Good. Original Wrappers.

Colorful booklet on the new Hudson Hornet Series: Four-door Sedan, Club Coupe, and Convertible Brougham. Also highlights the H-145 engine and four-speed Hydra-matic Drive. [Not seen in WorldCat. Not in Eisbrenner, Automobile Sales Literature.] (#037958)

$45.00

29. Hudson Motor Car Company. PRESENTING THE NEW 1950 HUDSONS IN THREE GREAT SERIES: Lower-priced Pacemaker - Famous Super - Custom Commodore. Detroit: Hudson Motor Car Co., 1950. First Edition. 28pp; text illustrated throughout with exterior and interior views in full color, printed on coated white stock. Pictorial cover. 8" x 10" Very Good. Original Wrappers.

The Hudson Commodore was Jack Kerouac's automobile of choice for Dean Moriarty in ON THE ROAD. [WorldCat finds only the Library of Michigan holding of this booklet. {Eisbrenner, Automobile Sales Literature, 107.}] (#037975) $125.00

30. Humphrey, Zephine. GREEN MOUNTAINS TO SIERRAS. NY: E.P. Dutton, 1936. Third printing. 253pp. Bound in green boards, black lettering and cover sketch; pictorial dust wrapper. 8.25" x 5.5" Very Good in Very Good dust-jacket. Original Cloth.

Zephine and husband drove their Chevrolet from Vermont, through the south and southwest, to Santa Barbara and other California places, returning to Vermont some three months later. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 63.] (#038145) $35.00

31. Idaho. TRAVEL IDAHO WITH CONOCO (ROAD MAP): Every Conoco Station is a Branch of the Conoco Travel Bureau. Chicago: H.M. Gousha, Circa 1933. First Edition. Broadsheet, folded as issued. Includes smaller maps on verso: Yellowstone National Park and Grand Teton; Glacier National Park; and street maps of Spokane, Boise & Pocatello. Also lists radio stations, motor laws, and gasoline taxes. Includes an integral ad for Conoco Bronze Gasoline. Opens to 24" x 18". Very Good. Pictorial cover. (#035695) $15.00

32. Laporte, Rudolph J. THE OPERATION OF AN AUTOMOBILE: Complete Instructions for the Driving of an Automobile. Holyoke, MA: R.J. Laporte, 1926. First Edition. 52pp; illustrations in text. Instructs the new driver on starting, stopping, city driving, turning, hand signals, skidding, carbon monoxide poisoning, etc. 9.25" x 6" Very Good. Pictorial Paper Covers. (#BOOKS015738I) $25.00

33. Main, Zilpha Pallister. COME TRAVEL ALONG--MOSTLY THROUGH AFRICA AND THE MIDDLE EAST: A Second Sampler of Overland Travels, Decades Apart. With Photographs by John Main. Los Angeles: Published by the author, 1981. First Edition. pp: (xiii), 221; frontispiece and 16 plates from photographs, endpaper maps. Bound in pictorial ivory boards, cover pastedown of giraffes, gilt lettering on cover and spine, acetate cover. 8.5" x 5.5" Very Good in dust-jacket. Original Boards.

Copy #114 of a limited edition. Presentation copy, inscribed and signed by Zilpha Main on the title-page. Her travels included London to Isfahan, Tangier to Tunisia, Cairo to Ourban, with side-trips. [WorldCat locates six library holdings of this title.] (#038139) $30.00

34. Maine & Washington, DC. PHOTOGRAPH ALBUM ASSEMBLED BY ROSEZETTE AGNEL FOSTER OF CARMEL, MAINE, 1913-1926. , 1924. Original album. Contains some 109 vernacular photographs mounted to 65 leaves of heavy black stock, labeled in white ink. The images of various sizes are mainly 4.25" x 3.25", averaging three or four to a page, with one page of 15 thumb portraits. Housed in an album of wove cloth over flexible boards, "Photographs" embossed on cover. 8.25" x 10.25" Very Good. Original Cloth.

Nearly all of the photographs feature members of several families in various Maine locales. Besides Carmel, home of the album's compiler, are photos from Ashland, Fort Kent, Yarmouth, Fairfield, Waterville, and East Dover. Several others are from North Attleboro, Massachusetts, along with an interesting group from Washington, DC, described below. ~~ The families mentioned most frequently are the Fosters (Herold, A.E., L.C., M.K., Fremont, and Amber Z.); the Andrews family (Mildred, Myrtle, children Greta and Chester, Helen, Lila and Lucian and daughter Natalie, Pauline and W.C.); and the Orcutts (Vernon, his daughter Marjorie, Viola, Laura and Edson). Also seen are several Hunts (Roland, Mary Ada) and Rangers (or Raynors): Ralph, Doris Orcutt Rayner and son Herbert); the Deon family (Lizzie and daughters); Batchelders; and Smiths (Bessie, Bernice, Herbert). Among the interesting family photos are: two Red Cross nurses; Vernon Orcutt (one in his Army uniform and helmet; and one in a baseball uniform and ball cap; family reunions with the women in floor-length skirts; children on horseback; early automobiles; family homesteads; an early radio and operator; ~~ The earliest photographs in this album are two taken in Washington, DC in 1913 (the White House and someone's home in Georgetown). Next, are two candid photos of the Grand Army of the Republic Parade on Pennsylvania Ave in Washington, Sept. 29, 1915, photographed by M.L. Andrews. Finally, we find seven (7) photos taken on September 17, 1919, including "The 1st Division Parade" taken by A.E. Foster "on his way home from War"; the 1st Division on the steps of the U.S. Capitol; "The 1st Division of General Pershing eating watermelons after parade"; U.S. Marine Band; and "[the] wounded of 1st Div. from Walter Reed Hospital" on parade. (#037885)
$200.00

35. Massachusetts, Berkshires. SOUVENIR BOOK OF THE MOHAWK TRAIL THROUGH THE BERKSHIRE HILLS. s.l. [North Adams, MA?]: s.n. [C.R. Canedy?], circa 1915. Early edition. 8pp of full-page colored illustrations from photographs, captions. Views include: A Big Turn of the Mohawk Trail through the Berkshire Hills; The Big Bridge; Grandest View of the Surrounding Country, West Side; Top of the Mohawk Trail; &c. Printed in silver on the back cover is a Brief History of the Mohawk Trail. Black wrappers, silver-stamped, "picture window" view through cover. 5.5" x 7.25" Fine. Pictorial Stiff Wrappers.
[WorldCat locates only the UVermont holding of this viewbook.] (#037918) $20.00

36. Massachusetts, Berkshires. SOUVENIR BOOK OF THE MOHAWK TRAIL THROUGH THE BERKSHIRE HILLS. North Adams, Mass.: C.R. Canedy, circa 1915. First Edition. 8pp of full-page colored illustrations from photographs, captions. Views include: Mohawk Trail, the Famous Hair Pin Turn; East Side, Mohawk Trail; West Side; Big Curves; Deerfield Valley from Whitcomb Summit Observation Tower; Whitcomb Summit, the Tourists' Mecca; &c. A number of the views in this edition include early automobiles. Descriptive text on both sides of the back cover. Gray wrappers, stamped in blue, "picture window" view through cover. 5.5" x 7.25" Fine. Pictorial Stiff Wrappers.
[WorldCat locates only the UVermont holding of this viewbook.] (#037919) $30.00

37. Massachusetts, Berkshires. SOUVENIR OF THE MOHAWK TRAIL, MASSACHUSETTS: Viewbook. Mechanicville, NY / Chicago: C.W. Hughes & Co. / Curt Teich, circa 1920. First Edition. 16pp. An attractive viewbook, accompanied by the original envelope, "showing the scenic highlights along the recently completed Massachusetts State Highway known as the Mohawk Trail (Route 2). The cover illustration shows a Native American viewing the picturesque scenery and a statue of an elk "The Elk on the Trail." The illustrations are shown two to a page and mimic the size and format of a postcard. Each illustration is surrounded by a single blue border and has a printed title underneath it. Among the many locations depicted are: Deerfield Valley and River; Berkshire Hills; Mount Greylock; Mount Shelburne; Whitcomb Summit; Hoosac Tunnel; Cold River; Stamford Valley; Charlemont Bridge; and the towns of North Adams, Greenfield, and Shelburne (Mass.). Automobiles figure prominently in the illustrations. Pamphlet includes one page of text, "The History and Description of the Mohawk Trail." Back illustration: "Bridge over Deerfield River at Charlemont" [copied from the Boston Athenaeum catalogue record]. 8.5" x 6.75" Fine. Pictorial Stiff Wrappers.

[WorldCat locates only three holdings: Mass. College of Liberal Arts, State Library of Mass., Boston Athenaeum.] (#036725) $35.00

38. Massachusetts, Boston. SOUVENIR OF BOSTON. Boston: Gray Line Motor Tours , 1922. First Edition. 48pp, printed in blue ink; photo-illus, double-page map. 9" x 6" Very Good. Original Wraps.

Describes motor tours of Boston, Salem, Plymouth, Lexington and Concord, etc.
(#BOOKS016017I) $15.00

39. McGeehan, W.O. TROUBLE IN THE BALKANS. With Drawings by Jules Halfant. NY: Lincoln MacVeagh/Dial Press, 1931. First Edition. 304pp; text illus from drawings; spine tanned. 7.75" x 5" Very Good. Original Cloth.

The famous sportswriter for the New York Herald-Tribune recounts his 1931 automobile journey through the Balkans and Europe prior to World War II. He visits "Jugoslavia" (Serbia, Croatia, and Montenegro), Albania, Turkey (Istanbul), Romania, Hungary, and Czechoslovakia as well as Greece, Italy, Austria, Germany and France. Sports metaphors and references abound, including McGeehan's famous description of boxing as "the manly art of modified murder" (in a chapter on French boxing matches). (#BOOKS019022I) $45.00

40. Mexico. MEXICO TRAVELOG By Don Sanborn. McAllen, Texas: Mexican Insurance & Travel, 1980. First Edition. Approx 100pp; 6 maps, one folding. Has sections on Mexican money, foods, liquors, travel tips, and a mile-by-mile driving tour citing motels, eateries, etc. 11" x 8.25" Very Good. Pictorial wraps. (#BOOKS009989I) $15.00

41. Middletown Self-locking Burr Mfg. Co. THE JACOBS AUTOMOBILE WHEEL IS A WONDER [broadside]: In Simplicity and Endurance it is the Best Wheel in the World....

Middletown, NY: Middletown Self-locking Burr Mfg. Co., Circa 1900. First Edition. Printed on one side of paper with display-type headline and drawing of the Jacobs Wheel. Few edge chips, not affecting text. 9.5" x 10" Good .

Text continues: "...A Machine equipped with our Wheel requires Less Power to run....Engines can be that much Smaller....The Rim that the tire is resting on is supported by Steel Spokes....The outer Hard Rubber Tire is held without flanges....You can Ride Over Broken Glass, Carpet Tacks, Nails, or Stones in the road...the Pneumatic Tire does not touch the ground....You Don't Have To Carry Extra Tires to replace....A Tire That Can't Skid....Call at the office of Vice-President, Room 15 Argus Building, Middletown, N.Y. for Demonstration...." (#033649) $50.00

42. Naillik Motor Signal Co. THE STORY OF THE HANDS [cover title]: THE NAILLIK AUTOMATIC ILLUMINATED SAFETY SIGNAL ... Naillik Hands Give the Signal, Night or Day. Boston: Naillik Motor Signal Co., 1918. First Edition. 7pp, printed in sepia ink on cream stock. 6.25" x 3.5" Fine. Printed Stiff Wrappers.

An online article on "trafficators" states: "Trafficators are semaphore signals which, when operated, protrude from the bodywork of a motor vehicle to indicate its intention to turn in the direction indicated by the pointing signal. Trafficators are often located at the door pillar ... Electric operation came in 1918 when the Naillik Motor Signal Company of Boston added electric motor drive...." [Unrecorded by OCLC.] (#036574) $35.00

43. New Jersey. KNOW YOUR OWN STATE: NEW JERSEY. NJ: Standard Oil Co., (1925). First Edition. pp: 44, (4); 11 b&w maps, text vignettes. This automobile travel guide to New Jersey also includes Hudson River ferry schedules. 8" x 5.5" Very Good. Pictorial Paper Covers. (#036976) $15.00

44. New Jersey. SUGGESTIONS FOR TRIPS IN NEW JERSEY: SCENIC - HISTORIC. Trenton: Trenton Printing Co., 1939. First Edition. 64pp; illus throughout from photographs. This town-by-town guide includes directories of historic trees, hotels, books on New Jersey, etc. 9" x 6" Very Good. Pictorial Stiff Wrappers. (#036980) $20.00

45. New Jersey - Pennsylvania. TACONY-PALMYRA BRIDGE: A 4-lane Bridge Crossing the Delaware River at Palmyra, New Jersey and North Philadelphia, PA. By F.H.M. Klinge. Palmyra, NJ: Burlington County Bridge Commission, 1963. First Edition. Broadsheet, containing maps of southern NJ, eastern PA, and Philadelphia plus strip maps and driving directions to towns and cities in the area. Precedes the interstate routes, so that directions rely on the old roads. 18" x 24" Very Good. Pictorial cover. (#BOOKS011217I) $10.00

46. New Jersey - Pennsylvania. TACONY-PALMYRA BRIDGE: A 4-lane Bridge Crossing the Delaware River at Palmyra, New Jersey and North Philadelphia, PA. Map by L.E. Reichard. Palmyra, NJ: Tacony-Palmyra Bridge Co., 1946. First Edition. Opens to 15" x 24". Contains maps of southern NJ, eastern PA, and Philadelphia, plus strip maps and driving directions to towns and cities in the area. This guide precedes the interstate routes, so that directions rely on the old roads. The front panels show a view of the bridge with 1930s cars and trucks on it. 7.5" x 4" Fine. . (#BOOKS012919I) $12.95

47. New York - Vermont. MOTOR ACROSS LAKE CHAMPLAIN: The AutoFerry between New York and New England--The Direct Ausable Chasm Route,. Burlington, VT: Champlain Transportation Co., 1931. First Edition. Brochure, opens to 9" x 16"; photo-illus, map. The cover shows a vintage automobile approaching a ferry terminal. Contains the ferry schedules for the 1931 season, a photo-view of the ferry (Steamer Chateaugay), rates ($3 round trip with car), and a large birdseye view of the area and the roads leading to it. 9" x 4" Very Good. . (#BOOKS012837I) $20.00

48. New York, Buffalo. HOW TO SEE BUFFALO: Use the Red Cars of the Buffalo Sight Seeing Co. or the Gould Auto Service. Buffalo's Greatest Scenic Trip. Buffalo, NY: Buffalo Sight Seeing Co. & A.B. Gould, circa 1900. First Edition. 23pp; illustrated local ads. The text details the many routes and stops used by the omnibus and automobiles. Full-page ads include: The Sweeney Store; Invalids' Hotel & Surgical Institute; Larkin Factories; Hotel Monroe; Watson House; Tryon Restaurant; Hotel Imperial; The Edwards; Erie Beach, "Buffalo's Atlantic City"; &c. Red wrappers with omnibus on cover; staples rusted. 6" x 3.25" Very Good. Pictorial Paper Covers. [WorldCat cites only the NY State Library holding.] (#037044) $35.00

49. Nicholson, T.R. ADVENTURER'S ROAD: The Story of Pekin-Paris, 1907 and New York-Paris, 1908. With 25 pages of half-tone illustrations and 2 maps. NY: Rinehart & Co., (1958). First US Edition. pp: (ix), 235 with index; frontispiece and 24pp illustrations from photographs, two double-page maps. Bound in blue cloth, spine lettered in gilt and red, pictorial dust wrapper. 8.5" x 5.5" Very Good in Very Good dust-jacket. Original Cloth. "There have never been two more heroic adventures in the history of the automobile than the Pekin-Paris Trial of 1907 and the New York-Paris Race of 1908." (#038142) $20.00

50. Norway. Group of six travel booklets and brochures, named below. v.l.: v.n., 1956. Original editions. Six titles: Motoring in Norway, 60pp, map, photo illus, 1956; Frognerseteren Hoveorestaurant Oslo, 4pp, photo illus, 1950s; Norway by Car, 24pp, photo illus, 1956; Oslo, The Viking Capital, 12pp, photo illus, 1950s; Oslo Sightseeing, 8pp, color illus, 1956; Norway Bound, 6pp, cartoons, 1956. Very Good. Pictorial Paper Covers.
(#036835) $45.00
51. Oklahoma. OKLAHOMA INFO-MAP. Chicago: Rand McNally for Gulf Oil, 1940. Original edition. Broadsheet, folded as issued. Includes facts about Oklahoma, safety and touring tips, ads for Gulf products, mileage table, and inset map of Okhahoma City. On the back is a smaller-scale road map of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Mississippi. Opens to 18" x 36" Very Good. Pictorial cover. (#BOOKS011209I) $15.00
52. Pemex Travel Club. APPROXIMATE COSTS AND ITINERARIES OF A MOTOR TRIP TO MEXICO . Mexico City: Petroleos Mexicanos, (194-?). First Edition. (39)pp; maps and photo-illustrations throughout, accompanying text. Bound in color-pictorial stiff wrappers. 8.75" x 6.5" Very Good in dust-jacket. Original Wrappers.
Contains detailed itineraries, pictures, and maps for 16 motor trips within Mexico, including car costs, hotels, meals, guides and tours, and miscellaneous costs. [WorldCat locates only a few holdings of this title.] (#038137) $20.00
53. Pennsylvania . THE FAMOUS ALL PAVED SUSQUEHANNA TRAIL AND CONNECTIONS: Automobile Road Mileage. By Charles Duffy. Williamsport, PA: Park Hotel, 1930. First Edition. 20pp; view of Park Hotel on cover. 9" x 4" Very Good. Pictorial wraps.
The author details auto routes and mileages through Pennsylvania and New York State, from New England to Pittsburgh and the West. Published by the Park Hotel, "the Garden Spot of Williamsport--The Mecca of the Tourist," with information on rooms and meals, and with references to the Susquehanna Trail Association, the Lycoming County Automobile Club, the Horseshoe Trail Association, etc. (#BOOKS011088I) $25.00
54. Post, Emily. BY MOTOR TO THE GOLDEN GATE. Illustrated with Photographs and Road Maps. NY: D. Appleton, 1916. First Edition. pp: (xii), (281); frontispiece and 32 plates from photographs, section at back with 28 hand-drawn road maps. Bound in blue cloth, gilt lettering, cover pastedown of US map, endpaper maps; spine gilt dull. 8.25" x 5.25" Very Good in dust-jacket. Original Cloth.
Emily Post and party left New York in April, 1915, and took 27 days to reach San Francisco via Cheyenne, Las Vegas, New Mexico and Arizona. Includes a daily expense account, tips on clothing, problems in finding guides and maps west of the Mississippi, etc. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 23.] (#038140) $175.00
55. Presbrey, Frank. MOTORING ABROAD: With Illustrations from Photographs. NY: Outing Publishing Co., 1908. First Edition. pp: x, 294; frontispiece, foldout map, numerous b&w plates from photographs. Pictorial gray buckram, stamped in black, yellow & green. 8.5" x 5.5" Very Good. Pictorial Cloth.
A prior owner's light pencil notes on two pages near front of book reflect a motoring trip to Paris. In part: "...American flag on car....go slow as possible on entering Paris. Fill up when you go out.--as then you can get back without duty." (#037611) $75.00
56. Quebec City. HOW TO SEE QUEBEC CITY. Quebec: Quebec Automobile Club, 1936. First Edition. Broadsheet, printed on both sides; 8 illus from photographs, map. Side 1 contains a city map of Quebec with points-of-interest. Side 2 includes 8 photographic views of sights in Quebec City, along with text on side trips to Ste. Anne de Beaupre, Montmorency Falls, &c. 18" x 28" Very Good. . (#BOOKS006973I) $10.00

57. Quebec, Montreal. QUAINT MONTREAL. Montreal, Canada: Yellow Cab / Herald Press, 1914. First Edition. 24pp; illus from drawings, 2 maps. The Yellow Cab tours by "automobile bus" included Montreal, Lachine (nights only), West Island, and Victoria Carriage Drive. 8" x 4.5" Very Good. Original Wraps. (#BOOKS007495I) $25.00

58. Richfield Oil Corp. TEN COMMANDMENTS OF SAVE-AND-SAVE DRIVING: Published in the Interest of Highway Safety. NY: Richfield Oil, 1938. First Edition. 16pp; illus in text. Each of the "ten commandments" is given by a safety expert. Also describes four types of accidents and car safety checks. 5.75" x 4.5" Good. Original wraps. (#BOOKS009895I) $10.00

59. Rittenberg, Caroline. MOTOR WEST. NY: Harold Vinal, 1926. First Edition. pp: (ix), 120; frontispiece view and four plates, three folding charts bound at rear (itinerary, mileages, fuel consumption, costs). Pictorial tan boards, stamped in gilt; small crack at top of front joint, lightly chipped dust wrapper. 7.25" x 4.5" Very Good in Very Good dust-jacket. Original Cloth.
The author and two other women left New York in 1925, followed the Lincoln Highway to St. Louis, then on through Colorado, New Mexico, California, the northwest, Yellowstone Park, and back via Chicago to New York. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 46.] (#038134) $75.00

60. Salmon, Ted [Fred Champion]. FROM SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA TO CASCO BAY. San Bernardino, Calif.: San Bernardino Publ Co., (1930). First Edition. 221pp; frontispiece from photograph. Cloth-backed, patterned card covers, cover title in black; edges of covers lightly chipped. 7.5" x 5.25" Very Good in dust-jacket. Cloth-backed printed wrappers.
Salmon and his wife drove their Essex Coupe from Los Angeles to New Orleans, then north along the coast to Portland, Maine. They returned home via New Mexico. The trip lasted 70 days and covered more than 10,000 miles during December, January, and part of February, 1929-30. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 54.] (#038148) $65.00

61. Seymour, Edmund Bayly. A LITTLE JOURNEY IN PROVENCE. London, 1911. Early edition. 18pp; 8 b&w, mounted plates. The nine leaves have text printed on the rectos and full-page illustrations from OLD PROVENCE by T.A. Cook on the versos. 8.75" x 6" Very Good. Original Cloth.
Seymour describes his 1909 train and auto journey, which started at Grenoble and included stops at Orange, Avignon, St. Remy de Provence, Les Baux, arles, Aigues-Mortes [watched "bull-baiting" there], and Grau-du-Roi. This appears to be the author's mock-up copy, bound in royal blue cloth with blind rules, watered-silk floral endpapers, a simple gilt cover title, and all edges gilt. (#BOOKS008474I) $20.00

62. Shackleton, Robert. TOURING GREAT BRITAIN. Philadelphia: Penn Publishing, 1923. Later printing. pp: ix, 347, index; 42 illus from photographs, map. 9.5" x 6" Very Good. Pictorial Cloth.
The author spent six weeks motoring through England, Scotland and Wales. After joining "one of the great British automobile clubs," he zigzagged from Manchester to North Wales, Cornwall, London, Oxford and Stratford, then up to Northumbria, through Durham and York, on to Scotland and the Highlands, winding back through the Lake County and Liverpool. (#BOOKS009342I) $25.00

63. Sharp, Dallas Lore. THE BETTER COUNTRY. Boston: Houghton Mifflin, 1928. First Edition. pp: viii, 277; frontispiece illustration, title-page vignette. Bound in green cloth, gilt spine lettering; name blacked out on front endpaper, chipped dust wrapper. 8.25" x 5.5" Very Good in Good dust-jacket. Original Cloth.

Sharp and wife drove from Hingham, Massachusetts to Santa Barbara, returning east via Salt Lake City, Laramie, and Grand Rapids. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 49.] (#038141)

$40.00

64. Spain - Portugal. GRANDES CARRETERAS ESPANA Y PORTUGAL EN 2 HOJAS, 1951-52. San Sebastian: Caucho Michelin, 1951. Folding map. Locates towns, roads and railways in Southern Spain & Portugal, with insets of the Balears Islands and Spanish Morocco. 10" x 4.5" Very Good. Printed self-wraps. (#BOOKS009647I) $10.00

65. Stockett, Letitia. AMERICA: FIRST, FAST & FURIOUS. Baltimore: Norman-Remington Co., 1930. First Edition. pp: xi, 278 with index; frontispiece and 51 plates from photographs. Bound in black cloth and color-striped boards; light wear to edges of boards. Signed by Letitia Stockett on the front endpaper. 9.25" x 6" Very Good in dust-jacket. Cloth-backed boards.

The author and two other women drove their Chrysler west out of Boston to Buffalo. After a voage via Great Lakes steamer to Duluth, they drove to North Dakota, then Washington, Oregon, and California to San Diego. On the return leg, they visited national parks, ending their trip in Colorado. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 51.] (#038135) $60.00

66. Studebaker Automobile Co. FOR ALL BUSINESS PURPOSES, THE NEW LOW-PRICED STUDEBAKER OFFERS YOU UNUSUAL CARRYING CAPACITY: Extra big bodies and extra big luggage compartments! s.l.: Studebaker, 1936. First Edition. Broadsheet, 15.75" x 23". Two original folds; illus throughout from photographs; printed on both sides in black & white & red. Near Fine. not bound.

Sings the praises of the 1936 Studebakers: the Business Coupe; the St. Regis Brougham; and the Cruising Sedan. (#031134) $35.00

67. Switzerland . HOW TO SEE INTERLAKEN AND ENVIRONS: Auto-car Tours to Rhone Glacier, Kandersteg, Adelboden, Brunig Pass, Lake of Thun, etc. London: Thos. Cook & Sons, 1927. First Edition. 16pp; views from photographs, map. Contains descriptions and prices for sightseeing by rail and by automobile, including whole-day and half-day tours. 7.25" x 4.75" Very Good. Pictorial Paper Covers. (#BOOKS015747I) $25.00

68. Thorndyke, Helen Louise. HONEY BUNCH: HER FIRST AUTO TOUR. NY: Grosset & Dunlap, 1926. First Edition. pp: (iii), 172; frontispiece illustration. Bound in red cloth, black lettering on cover and spine, pictorial endpapers, pictorial dust wrapper; private bookplate on verso of frontispiece. 7.5" x 5" Very Good in Very Good dust-jacket. Original Cloth.

Fiction for children, involving a road trip. Frontispiece and dust jacket illustrations by W.S. Rogers. (#038130) $35.00

69. Tomlinson, Everett T. FOUR BOYS IN THE LAND OF COTTON: Where They Went, What They Saw, and What They Did. Illustrated by H.C. Edwards. Boston: Lothrop, Lee & Shepard, (1907). First Edition. pp: 415, (1) publisher's advert; 6 b&w plates. Bound in pictorial blue cloth, stamped in red, white and gilt; prior owner's name on front endpaper. 7.5" x 5" Very Good in dust-jacket. Original Cloth.

Created by Tomlinson to inspire readers to travel America by automobile, this second title in his "Our Own Land" series follows four boys on a fictional road trip through Virginia, Tennessee, Arkansas, and other points in the South. (#037994) $65.00

70. Trego, Frank H. BOULEVARDED OLD TRAILS IN THE GREAT SOUTHWEST. NY: Greenberg, 1929. First Edition. pp: xviii, 262; map, 60pp illus from photographs. 8.25" x 5.5" Very Good. Original Cloth.

This detailed account of a motor trip through the southwest begins at Denver and includes portions of the Santa Fe Trail, part of Arizona, the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, Taos, &c. Contains photographs of native americans, pueblos, &c. [Rittenhouse, Santa Fe Trail, 584.]
(#BOOKS005711I) $30.00

71. Up and down...sheet music. UP AND DOWN THE EIGHT MILE ROAD. Words by Gus Kahn. Music by Walter Donaldson. NY: Irving Berlin Music, 1926. First Edition. 6pp, words and music, in part: "Here's a bright thought, summer night thought, for a boy in love...You take a ride, with a gal by your side, up and down the eight mile road...." "Complimentary" stamp on cover. 12" x 9" Very Good. Pictorial Cover.

This curious song, featured by Grace Aldrich, instructs young men in the art of driving with one arm while employing the other in making whoopie. Ford is here the car of choice. (#033168)
$10.00

72. Utah. TRAVEL UTAH WITH CONOCO (ROAD MAP): Every Conoco Station is a Branch of the Conoco Travel Bureau. Chicago: H.M. Gousha, Circa 1933. First Edition. Broadsheet, folded as issued. Includes smaller maps on verso: Zion National Park; Bryce Canyon National Park; Grand Canyon National Park; and street maps of Salt Lake City and Ogden. Also lists radio stations, motor laws, and gasoline taxes. Includes an integral ad for Conoco Bronze Gasoline. Opens to 24" x 18". Very Good. Pictorial cover. (#035700) $15.00

73. Vermont. VERMONT TOURS Compiled by H.H. Chadwick. Montpelier, VT: Vermont Development Commission, 1937. First Edition. 48pp; full-page and smaller views from photographs, map printed inside back cover. 9" x 6" Very Good. Pictorial Stiff Wrappers.
This tour book lays out a 1,203-mile automobile trip through Vermont, set up as 19 shorter trips, with historical background on each village and place name along the way. (#036888)
$25.00

74. Vernon, Paul E. COAST TO COAST BY MOTOR. London / NY: A&C Black / William Edwin Rudge, 1930. First US Edition. pp: xi, (116) with index; 8 color plates from photographs, foldout map at back. Bound in blue cloth, dark-blue lettering. 7.75" x 5.25" Very Good in Good dust-jacket. Original Cloth.

Vernon and a friend drove a Benz Touring Car from New York, westward through South Dakota and Yellowstone to San Francisco and Los Angeles, returning home via Albuquerque, Kansas City, and Ohio: 9,300 miles at a total cost under $600. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 53.]
(#038146) $50.00

75. Virginia, New Market. OFFICIAL ROAD GUIDE TO FLORIDA AND THE SOUTHEAST VIA ENDLESS CAVERNS. New Market, VA: Endless Caverns, 1930. First Edition. Broadside, folded to 8 panels; illus from photographs. 9.5" x 4" Very Good. .
Includes a map of the eastern US, with a table of mileages from various points to Endless Caverns. (#BOOKS007479I) $10.00

76. Virginia, Tidewater Region. TIDEWATER AUTOMOBILE ASSOCIATION: The Map and Information In This Folder is of Interest to You. Norfolk, Virginia: Tidewater Automobile Ass'n, circa 1930. Original edition. Broadsheet, 11" x 8.5". Black ink on pale-gray stock. Designed as a bifold leaflet. One side of the broadsheet contains a map of the Tidewater

Region, with AAA service stations marked by stars. The verso contains directions for getting road service, along with membership benefits: free tour books, free legal service, free delivery and attachment of license plates, free headlight and brake adjustments, free radiator inspection, free notary service, reduced prices on oils, tires, tubes and auto accessories, etc. Very Good.

AAA Tidewater Virginia was founded on Jan. 18, 1913, as the Tidewater Automobile Association, according to the company website. (#037115) $10.00

77. Vulcanite Portland Cement Company. CONCRETE ROADS VERSUS PRESENT ROADS [broadside]. Philadelphia & NY: Vulcanite Portland Cement Co., circa 1912. Original document. Three illustrations from photographs show men working with horses and wagons, laying a concrete road. The large, readable text explains why concrete roads should be built, citing experiences in Detroit and Pittsburgh, comparing installation costs of concrete roads with the ongoing expense of trying to maintain dirt roads, &c. Printed in black ink on heavy gray stock, original folds. 25" x 20". Very Good.

[Unrecorded by WorldCat.] (#038094) $85.00

78. Westbrook, Margaret. HIGHWAY TRAVELERS: 68 Days on Southern Highways. Illustrated by Betty Le Mohn. Los Angeles: Suttonhouse, (1939). First Edition. pp: xv, 168; 4 plates showing travel ephemera, 24 pen-and-ink illustrations in the text, endpaper maps. Bound in orange cloth, blue lettering, lightly chipped dust wrapper. Inscribed to Lefty Roberts and signed by Margaret Westbrook Herwig, Aug. 1964. 8.5" x 5.5" Very Good in Very Good dust-jacket. Original Cloth.

The author, her husband, and another couple drove a Buick from their native California through Arizona, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, and Florida, with a side-trip to Cuba. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 65. WorldCat locates five library holdings.] (#037992) $100.00

79. White, Ray B. THE TRAIL OF THE DESERT SUN. Pen Sketches by the Author. Frontispiece by Winsor McKay. Zarephath, NJ: Pillar of Fire, 1931. First Edition. 208pp, including 3pp publisher's ads; frontispiece portrait and 8 plates from photographs, b&w sketches in the text. Bound in red ribbed cloth, gilt lettering on cover and spine. 7.5" x 5.25" Very Good in dust-jacket. Original Cloth.

Te author and his mother, Alma White, drove from New Jersey to the west coast in 1930. [Bliss, Autos Across America, 54A.] (#038133) $30.00

