Prelude

“Everlasting Love”

*Jonathan Lys
& the Surf Shack Singers*

Welcome

“When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love. (I Corinthians 13) On this 5th Sunday after Pentecost may the Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Brief Order for Confession and Forgiveness (Congregation stands)

Leader: Most merciful God,

People: We confess that we are in bondage to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against You in thought, word and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart: we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of Your son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in Your will and walk in Your ways to the glory of Your holy name. Amen.

Leader: In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for you and for His sake God forgives you all your sins. To those who believe in Jesus Christ He gives the power to become the children of God and bestows on them the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

On Sunday Mornings!

During the month of July the first three songs of our Sunday morning worship service will reflect the energy, joy and fun of this year's VBS. As a way of spreading that love we would love to have you help lead these songs as one of our "Surf Shack Singers".

Simply go to Shepherd of Life's You Tube site and learn the songs at your convenience: Everlasting Love, Shout to the North and Waves of Mercy. Then when July comes simply come forward at the beginning of the service you normally attend.!

... AND WEAR YOUR HAWAIIAN SHIRT!

Scripture Reading

1 Corinthians 13

If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing. Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end. For we know only in part, and we prophesy only in part; but when the complete comes, the partial will come to an end. When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became an adult, I put an end to childish ways. For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known. And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

A fond farewell...

Dear friends,

I am writing to let you know that after much prayerful consideration I have decided to leave Shepherd of Life Lutheran Church. This has not been an easy decision for me. Please understand that it is not any one particular reason, but as Mark is becoming a bigger part of our lives I think it important that we find a church that we can all 4 of us worship, serve and grow in Christ together. I know it will not be an easy task and will take time. . . I remember how long it took Tom and I to find SOL. We have decided to take the summer and start exploring other churches and denominations. I think it will be good for the boys to see and experience various denominations and how they each live out their faith in unique ways. Change is hard, even when it's for the best, but it is time for us to move on to our next chapter. There is so much that I will miss. Thank you for everything you have done for me and my family over the years. I wish you all the best!

With Warm Regards, Julie Smith

Forget Me Not Days
Plant a seed of hope.

More than 5 million people in the U.S. suffer from Alzheimer's disease. It is the sixth leading cause of death in our country. That is why, when Pete Hickman approached us, we knew we had to help with the Banker's Life Forget Me Not Days fundraiser. A gift of $500.00 has been given to this campaign, 100% of which will go to the Alzheimer's Association to help fund research and provide care to those afflicted.

As a thank you, there is a box of forget me not seeds in the narthex.
Feel free to help yourself.
