January 22, 2014-Rancho Cucamonga: Global Restoration Community Development, Inc. (GLOBAL RCD, a 501c3), produces a benefit concert featuring DW3 April 15th, 2014 at the beautiful Victoria Gardens Cultural Center located at 12505 Cultural Center Drive in the City of Rancho Cucamonga.

The purpose is to raise funds for the homeless and to organizations that assist in providing shelter to the homeless.

Global RCD's specific purpose is to provide temporary and emergency financial services to assist people during the economic crisis by providing shelter, housing and other resources for transitional aged youth, homeless, adults and those with mental disabilities. In addition, Global RCD provides shelter and emergency bed services to Transitional Age Youth (TAY) individuals between the ages of 16-25.

"Proceeds of this event will benefit of the Boys and Girls Clubs of San Bernardino and surrounding communities," states Global RCD's Founder Duane Phillips. "There is so much need in our communities and we have chosen the Boys and Girls Club in San Bernardino to assist in targeting specifically those that will receive assistance in the communities they service."

Under the direction of Mr. A. Majadi (San Bernardino) the mission of the Boys and Girls Club is to enable all young people, especially those who need us most, to reach their full potential as productive, caring and responsible citizens.

"The goals and mission of Global RCD are in the same lane of the goals and mission of the S.B. Boys and Girls Club; to reach and empower specific targeted youth in the surrounding communities we service and I am extremely honored that we were chosen to participate as recipients of this wonderful charity concert!" states Majadi.

The Global RCD Benefit Concert will provide Urban R&B, Jazz and Latin entertainment for all those that attend. DW3 is one of the most enthusiastic, smooth and new sounding bands from the Los Angeles area. Composed of Eric, William & Damon, the 3 harmonious voices will bring high energy R&B Jazz and Latin Soul band to life. ABOUT ALFONSO FREEMAN

Freeman was born in Los Angeles, California, is the son of actor Morgan Freeman and Loletha Adkins. He attended the Marion Anderson Elementary School, Ralph J. Bunche and Benjamin O. Davis Jr. High Schools and Compton High School, from which he graduated in 1977. He briefly attended California State University, Long Beach as an art major.

The son of acclaimed actor Morgan Freeman, Alfonso Freeman used his imposing presence to great effect in character roles. He took his first onscreen bows in the mid-'90s, gracing the casts of many productions that starred his father, including "The Shawshank Redemption" "Seven" "Nurse Betty" and "The Bucket List". Making light of this, he voiced a lead character, Fred Redding, in the short parody "The SharkTank Redemption". Alfonso also appeared in such films as "Burn and Lord Help Us", as well as taking on guest roles on such popular TV series as "The West Wing", ER and "The Practice". In addition to his onscreen work, Freeman is an accomplished stage actor and gospel singer. Freeman appeared again, in a parody of the "Shawshank Redemption" during "Robot Chicken series 4", in which he recounts the story as if it were set in the Batman universe of Arkham Jail.

ABOUT GLOBAL RESTORATION COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT, INC.

Global Restoration Community Development Inc. is a non-profit organization that was formed to help people who are in immediate financial need in communities both nationally and around the world. Due to the economic crisis, there are real issues staring people in the face, or should we say in the wallet? People are losing their jobs, cars, homes, apartments, ability to go to college among other things. Some people need money to buy medication for themselves or their children. There are people living on the street or in their cars because they can't pay the rent or their mortgage. There are also people who have jobs, but have no transportation to get to that job. The list goes on and on. This is the mission of Global Restoration Community Development Inc. We are here to lend a hand to those people and help them get back on track. To accomplish our goals, we need your financial assistance. Your generosity will help put smiles back on the faces of those in need. Your gifts are a great way to help communities to continue to grow. All donations are tax deductible. Sow your best seeds into the lives of others today! <http://www.global-rcd.com/>

ABOUT THE FOUNDER: MR. DUANE PHILLIPS

Born and raised in Compton, Ca. Duane Phillips currently resides with his wife Dayna Phillips in Alta Loma, Ca. He is a top Sales and Leasing Consultant with one of the largest automobile companies, Mercedes Benz of Ontario. In 2012, Duane decided to form his own non-profit organization called Global Restoration Community Development. His main mission is to aid the youth and the homeless population of the greater Inland Empire. As a youth, Duane frequently accompanied his mother, a staunch advocate for the homeless, at the local homeless shelters in the Los Angeles area. After his mother's death, Duane accepted the calling to follow in his mother's footsteps.

Duane has traveled to Southern and Northern California school districts motivating the youth of today. "I stand for change. I want to share knowledge and uplift the youth of tomorrow. I want to be the light that overshadows our youth of today and to give hope to the homeless in our community. I want to motivate and instill confidence with a clear perception of who you are and where you are going."
