

It's Here!!

Hawk Mountain Council is hosting the 2016 University of Scouting and College of Commissioner Science

Every 3 years, Hawk Mountain Council hosts a University of Scouting and College of Commissioner Science. On March 12, join both new and experienced scouters for a day of learning, fun and fellowship at Albright College.

All one day required training courses will be offered including:

Commissioner Basic	Boy Scout Leader Specific	Cubmaster
District Committee	Pack & Troop Committee Challenge	Den Leader
Chartered Org Rep	Venturing Advisor & Committee

In addition, learn the tricks and techniques that will take your unit to the next level. Check out the continuing education courses available:

Online Resources including the new Online Cub Training – ScoutU	Boy Scout Advancement: Requirements and Scoutbook	Basic Leave No Trace and Outdoor Ethics	Cub Scout Pizazz
Free Communication Tools for Your Unit	Interfaith Services	Camping: Equip Yourself for Success	What's New at HMSR
Jamboree 2017 & the Summit Bechtel Reserve	Local High Adventure Opportunities	The Order of the Arrow	The Adventure Continues: Cub Program Updates
Training Office Hour and My.Scouting.org help walk-in session	STEM Scouting For Cubs and Boy Scouts	Gear and How-To Introduce Older Scouts to High Adventure	Nuts about Knots
Recruiting Volunteers	Boy Led Programs	High Adventure: Make it work for your unit	Cub Scout Pizazz
What's Wood Badge?	Teach ISLT to your Troop or Crew	Successful Den Leading: What they don't tell you.	Scouting with Special Needs Scouts
Patch Collecting	Conflict Resolution	Cub Programming: Day Camp and More	Webelos to Scout Transition

See the complete course catalog and register at <http://www.hmc-bsa.org/Event.aspx?id=2599> (Commissioner College) or <http://www.hmc-bsa.org/Event.aspx?id=2182> (University of Scouting)