

The Hawk Mountain Council serves over 12,500 young men and women each year through the generous support and dedication of over 400,000 adult volunteers and Friends of Scouting.

Over 8,000 young men and women are registered in our programs in Berks and Schuylkill Counties and part of Carbon County.

Nearly 2,000 youth from other Boy Scout Councils participate in our summer and year-round leadership and outdoor adventures at Hawk Mountain Scout Reservation.

Over 2,500 young men and women from local schools, churches and other civic organizations participate in Hawk Mountain Scout Reservation's leadership and outdoor programs.

2014 Accomplishments

- Served over 2,000 at-risk and disadvantaged youth and provided over 200 camp scholarships
- Awarded 128 Eagle Scout Ranks
- Members, leaders and staff provided over 350,000 community service hours
- Ranked in the top 5% of 285 councils across the nation in membership growth and key programs metrics
