ABOUT OUR HONOREES

Richard Rudnick was raised in Worcester, earned his undergraduate degree from Swarthmore College and his MD from Boston University. After 25 years of practicing medicine in the greater Worcester community, Richard left his practice to further his Jewish education. He completed his training at the Rabbinical School of Hebrew College and currently serves Jewish Healthcare Center, Inc., as campus rabbi and chaplain. He also serves as Jewish chaplain at UMass Memorial Medical Center. Richard's community involvement began in high school as an officer of Temple Emanuel's youth group. He went on to serve on their board of directors. In addition, Richard has served and held leadership positions on the boards of Worcester Jewish Community Housing for the Elderly, Solomon Schechter Day School, the New Jewish Academy, Jewish Federation of Central Massachusetts, and Congregation Beth Israel.

Sheila Trugman earned her undergraduate degree from Brandeis University and received her MD from Boston University. After post-graduate training in Chicago and San Francisco, Sheila set up practice with her husband Richard. Sheila served as medical director of the Jewish Healthcare Center and was the founding medical director of the Jewish Home Hospice. While Richard was finishing his rabbinic studies, she was an attending geriatrician at Hebrew Senior Life Boston and Dedham. Sheila returned to Worcester to start Tree of Life Healthcare, a concierge medical practice. She was active for many years as a volunteer fundraiser for Solomon Schechter Day School and has served on the boards of Jewish Family Service, Congregation Beth Israel, and the Jewish Federation of Central Massachusetts, where she chaired the annual campaign.

Sheila and Dick met while studying medicine at Boston University and have been blessed with wonderful children Lavi, Mark and his wife Rira, Howie and his fiancée Ariana, and Johanna. In recognition of their devotion and commitment to community and to the Jewish people, Israel Bonds is proud to present Sheila and Richard with its prestigious Israel Unity Award.

Micali Morin began her Jewish education at Temple Emanuel preschool, where she went on to become a Bat Mitzvah. She was confirmed in 10th grade at Congregation B'nai Shalom and has continued her post-confirmation studies there while working as a madricha for third through fifth grades. Micali is currently president of WAFTY, her temple youth group. Additionally, Micali is active in the URJ NFTY Northeast region and has attended many regional and national events, including the URJ Biennial and the NFTY Veida Youth Leadership seminar. She spends summers at URJ Crane Lake Camp, where she participated in NFTY L'Dor V'Dor Israel trip and in their Machon CIT program. She is an Olim Fellow counselor for this summer. Micali participated in NFTY-EIE, spending spring semester of her junior year studying abroad in Israel on Kibbutz Tzuba. Micali will attend New York University's Tisch School of the Arts for dramatic writing, class of 2020. She is very proud of her Jewish identity and strongly believes in the future of the State of Israel. Micali is the daughter of Debbi Morin and Steve Morin, and has an older sister Eve. Israel Bonds is proud to present to Micali Morin its prestigious Star of David Award.
