

High Five Award

HandsOn Northwest North Carolina (HandsOn NWNC) is pleased to announce its fourth annual High Five Award. The High Five Award is designed to recognize and honor a nonprofit within Forsyth, Davidson, Davie, Stokes, Surry or Yadkin County that has demonstrated an imaginative or creative way to improve program/service delivery, create a new program, or develop a unique or inventive method to address a particular problem or initiative. By celebrating examples of innovations and creativity within our sector, HandsOn NWNC can highlight ideas that will inspire other organizations to look at problems in new ways. This award is presented in conjunction with HandsOn NWNC's celebration of Nonprofit Awareness Month in November.

Eligibility. The High Five Award is open to any nonprofit located in and serving communities within Forsyth, Davidson, Davie, Stokes, Surry and Yadkin County. Eligible applications must address a program/project/activity that was implemented within the last five years.

Application Submission and Deadline. Please e-mail your application, including the cover page and required attachments, to HandsOn NWNC at KathyDavis@HandsOnNWNC.org by the due date on the application. If necessary, you may mail one (1) copy of the application and attachments to HandsOn NWNC, 751 West Fourth Street, Suite 200, Winston-Salem, 27101. Incomplete applications will be disqualified. All submissions will become the property of HandsOn NWNC and will not be returned. Additional copies of the High Five Award Program Description and Application are available online at www.HandsOnNWNC.org. Late submissions will not be accepted.

Application Review. Applications will be reviewed by a volunteer committee comprised of nonprofit professionals and other leaders. HandsOn NWNC staff will not serve on the committee.

Award. The winning organization will be announced at the November Best Practice Breakfast sponsored by HandsOn NWNC in November. At that time, the winning organization will be presented with a check for $5,000, thanks to the generosity of The Kate B. Reynolds Charitable Trust.

Questions? If you have any questions concerning the High Five Award or the application process, please contact HandsOn NWNC at 336-724-2866 or e-mail Kathy Davis at KathyDavis@HandsOnNWNC.org.
