

THE INVISIBLE DOG

April 8, 2014

Hello,

The Invisible Dog is bringing French director and choreographer Thierry Niang to Brooklyn for two weeks to create a production of SPRING, inspired by “The Rite of Spring” by Stravinsky. Working with 15 local participants ages 60 to 100, Niang will stage a powerful reimagining of Stravinsky’s “Rite of Spring”, which he has already created multiple times in France and Brussels.

Niang is looking for 15 professional and non-professional seniors of all backgrounds and levels of ability to comprise the ensemble.

This will be a very special, one-time only performance – and a meaningful experience for all involved.

If you are interested, please write and meet with Thierry for one of the following sessions on Wednesday, April 30th at The Invisible Dog:

4:30 to 6:00pm (arrive at 4:30pm)

6:30 to 8:00pm (arrive at 6:30pm)

Rehearsals will be held at The Invisible Dog May 1st to 10th, 10am to 1pm, and the public performance will be held May 11 at 5pm. All performers are paid and provided meal the day of the show.

Please email richard@600highwaymen.org and let us know which time slot you’d like to attend.

Happy Spring!
