

CALLING ALL COLORS

A Celebration of Multi-culturalism

Charleston, SC

Please join the congregation of Mother Emanuel AME Church and the Charleston community in a one-day camp for young people to pursue racial reconciliation by discussing stereotypes and other race-related issues; brainstorming ways to promote ethnic openness and experiencing different cultures through arts.

This event is being held in conjunction with the Emanuel Commemoration Committee's activities to celebrate the enduring legacy of the Emanuel 9 and the survivors.

This event is free of charge.
Register through EventBrite by June 16th.
