

Meet Amanda Hardcorn, PCAP Coordinator

Amanda joined the team at CILO in January of 2011 as a Transition Coordinator for the HOME Choice Program; and in July of 2014 transferred to CILO's Kentucky office to become a PCAP (Personal Care Attendant Program) Coordinator. Amanda holds a Bachelor's degree in Social Work from Northern Kentucky University, and a Master's degree in Social Work from the University of Kentucky. "I enjoy working with people and helping them to make a difference in their lives".

Amanda lives in Edgewood, Kentucky, has three older brothers, and five nieces and two nephews that she enjoys spending time with. "I love them just like they are my own".

Amanda's personal goal is to become a licensed social worker.
