

Here's your Haiti team 2015 CTK Anacortes, standing on the porch of the prayer chapel at the St Marc YWAM base. Standing with us is pastor Galilee Perilus, our CTK national pastor here in Haiti. Today this team put on five hour training for 42 lay pastors serving the 12 CTK churches in Haiti. ... What a day it has been!

Here is our CTK sista Joanne Day speaking through our seasoned interpreter Mish at a gathering of CTK young adults. Joanne told her testimony and challenged these young men and women to live for Jesus.

Here are our CTK women meeting with young women from Gonieve and presenting to them gifts from Days For Girls. CTK has distributed hundreds of these life-giving gifts to young women throughout Saint Marc and Gonaives.

This is Pastor Galilee Perilus, the Haitian national CTK Pastor. He lives with his wife and children in St. Marc, around a two hour drive north of Port Au Prince on the northern coast. Pastor Galilee has put much effort into establishing new CTK church's and training the growing number of pastors. Today there are approximately 13 CTK churches established and around 60 lay pastors serving in the CTK Haiti network.

CTK is thriving in Haiti even with all the challenges.

had an enthusiastic partnership with CTK Port Orange, Snohomish, Bellingham, and Anacortes. Numerous teams have travelled down to partner with our CTK servant leaders. The short term teams have carried out numerous pastor trainings and youth events over the past three years. This is a picture of Pastors from Bellingham praying for the Haitian pastors.

There is a continuing need for encouragement and resourcing of the pastors in Haiti. Most have little training and very few study resources. Pastor Galilee is always looking for help with his pastoral network. He has welcomed all our efforts to partner with him.

Trips down to Haiti are of reasonable expense, a strong encouragement to the Haitian churches, and an important resource for the servant leaders.
