

The Washington Teachers' Union and the WTU Teacher Center

present

Research Symposium 2015

featuring

Action Research Presentations and Findings of the WTU Teacher Leaders 2014-15 Cohort

Saturday, May 16, 2015

9 am – 2 pm

McKinley Technical High School Library
151 T Street, NE, Washington, DC 20002

Join Us for Free • Earn Four Professional Learning Units Enjoy Networking and Great Food

RSVP at: dialogue@wtulocal6.net.

(Turn over for information on the WTU Teacher Leaders and Research Topics)

Imani Abdullah
(Whittier Education Campus)

Teacher Effectiveness and Special Education Students in the General Education Setting

Maria Angala
(Jefferson Academy)

Effects of After School PD on Teachers and Students

Olubusola Ayangbesan and Shakera Oliver
(Brightwood Education Campus)

Cultural Competency: Examining Strategies for Special Education and Understanding of Sub-groups to Narrow the Achievement Gap

Busra Aydin
(Noyes Elementary School)

Examination of Students Who Read on Grade Level Yet Perform
Below Grade Level on Varied Assessments

Rajeeni Galloway
(Marie Reed Education Campus)

Librarians are Life Lines for Student Achievement:
A Case for Flexible Scheduling

Alicia Hunter
(Woodrow Wilson High School)

Student Perception is Our Reality:
A Comparative Study of Using Public Relations to Improve Student Achievement

Jessica Levknecht
(Banneker Academic High School)

Multiple Choice Testing: Perception vs. Reality

Cheryl Miller
(Takoma Education Campus)

Standardized Testing (PARCC) and Special Needs Students

Monica Moment
(Banneker Academic High School)

ASK ME: I AM THE LEARNER

Jacqueline Pogue-Lyons
(Savoy Elementary School)

Recruitment and Retention of New Teacher at Low Performing Urban Schools

Eric Porter
(Hardy Middle School)

Homework: Why Won't You Do It?

Sarah Elwell
(McKinley Technical High School)
WTU Teacher Leaders Program Coordinator

Elizabeth A. Davis
WTU President