FISHING FOR (SCHOLARSHIP) FUNDS!

All Day – Charles County Arts Alliance “Welcome Tent”

The Charles County Arts Alliance is “fishing for (scholarship) funds” at ArtsFest 2016!

Help us raise funds for our annual Arts Scholarship Program!

Each year, the Charles County Arts Alliance offers a $1000 Arts Scholarship to a highly talented graduating senior at each of our Charles County seven (7) high schools to help further his/her higher education at a four-year college or university, leading to a career in the performing, visual and literary arts. The Charles County Arts Alliance conducts a variety of fundraising efforts throughout the year, including silent auctions, gourmet gift baskets, partnering with local retail businesses and restaurants, in addition to cash donations by the Arts Alliance Board of Directors and individual members.

At ArtsFest 2016, our final fundraiser for Arts Scholarships for the current school year will take place. We are delighted to announce that Charles County resident, deep sea diver and underwater photographer/artist Henry L. Font, III, has donated two beautiful, stunning artworks to the Charles County Arts Alliance. In turn, we will be offering to those ArtsFest attendees making donations to our Arts Scholarship Fund an opportunity to take these fabulous artworks home! The two artworks are large, bold canvas photo prints entitled, Queen Angel Fish and Sea Turtle, and are signed by the photographer/artist. The artworks are valued at $250/each.

Be sure to stop by the Charles County Arts Alliance “Welcome Tent” at ArtsFest 2016 to see these two fabulous artworks on display. Learn more about our Arts Scholarship Program and please join us in “fishing for (scholarship) funds”!

About the Photographer/Artist:

Henry Font, III, was born in Puerto Rico in 1963. Henry graduated from the University of Puerto Rico (Mayaguez Campus) in 1987, with a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering. Henry has resided in Charles County since 1988.

He worked as a Test Engineer at the Naval Surface Warfare Center, Indian Head, MD from 1988 to 1996. In 1996, Henry became a Quality Engineer for the U.S. Coast Guard's Office of Acquisitions, where he worked until 2001.

In 2001, Henry moved to the U.S. Coast Guard's National Pollution Funds Center where he implemented the Oil Pollution Act of 1990. In 2005, he deployed to the State of Louisiana as part of the Federal emergency response contingent to Hurricane Katrina. In response to the 2010 Gulf of Mexico BP Oil Spill (the first spill of national significance in U.S. history), he deployed for a total of 18 months while serving at the Gulf Coast Incident Management Team's Command Post. From 2010 to 2014, Henry served as the U.S. Coast Guard's Case Officer tracking all the Federal Government's expenditures of the oil spill cleanup response (which totaled nearly $1 billion).

In 2004, Henry became a diver and realized that wanted to share the beauty of our oceans through underwater photography. It was then that the long training process began, allowing the realization of this dream. In 2005, he became an Advanced Open Water Diver; in 2006 a Master Diver, and in 2008, he became a Certified Dive Master under the Professional Association of Diving Instructors (PADI). Henry recently ventured into doing sports photography, which can be seen at FontPhoto.Photoshelter.com. He may be reached at: henryfont@verizon.net.

Arts Alliance and the Charlotte Hall Veterans Home Honor Artists in the Second Art Show

Teacher Vicki Marckel and Her Students Display Paintings of the Governor Harry W. Nice Memorial Bridge

Pictured with Commissioner President Peter F. Murphy and Commissioner Ken Robinson (District 1) are local artist and teacher Vicki Marckel and Henry E. Lackey High School art students.

On Thursday, May 26, the Charles County Commissioners hosted the "Ponte" Exhibition at the Charles County Government Building. This exhibit featured paintings from local artist and teacher, Vicki Marckel, and her students from Henry E. Lackey High School, of the Governor Harry W. Nice Memorial Bridge in Newburg, Maryland. These paintings are the result from the "paint-in" event held at Captain Billy's Crab House restaurant on Saturday, April 30. Vicki's painting will be displayed at the Welcome Center in Newburg, Maryland, to commemorate and preserve the history of the bridge for years to come.
