

SPRING BOOK FAIR NEWS

Our Scholastic Spring Buy-One-Get-One-Free “Under the Sea” will begin on Monday, March 23! We will kick off our fair with our Family Event from 3:00-6:30pm. We will have attendance prizes, a coloring table, and a photo opportunity with Clifford and Tobi the Tiger! The fair will be decorated with lots of sea creatures – come fish around for some great deals!

Our Book Fair will continue during library classes on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. We will be open until 3:30 on Tuesday and Wednesday – I need volunteers to help cover this after school time so that I can cover my musical rehearsals. The fair will be packed up at 2:45pm on Thursday, March 26.

We still need volunteers – parents, grandparents, and even 7th and 8th graders who need service hours. I need a set-up crew for Sunday, March 22 from 12:00-2:00pm in the Parish Center. Please bring Ipads or smart phones to look up AR titles. I also need volunteers to help little shoppers on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. And finally a clean-up crew after school on Thursday. This should only take an hour with 4 or 5 volunteers on hand. You can sign-up online on my Library Book Fair webpage with Volunteer Spot. The link is also in the weekly e-mail.

Please remember when you send money with your child for the book fair, they will be charged 8.1% sales tax. Also please consider donating a book to your student’s classroom library from your teacher’s wish list!

This book fair will be full of treasures for everyone: many Accelerated Reader titles at all levels, holiday books, Christian books, and young adult teen books. This is a great time to think about books for summer reading! Check out my Book Fair web link on my Library website under Book Fair News. You (and family members anywhere) can shop. Books are shipped to school for free! This is a fun opportunity to be a “secret shopper” for Easter or a birthday. 😊

If you have any questions or can help volunteer, please send me an e-mail or sign-up online. This is a bonus fair for your students to purchase books at a great price. Everything in the fair is Buy-One-Get-One-Free!

Gracias and see you at the Feria del Libro!
