

HOW TO DO BUSINESS WITH MINAS GERAIS

Pictured left to right: Aguinaldo Diniz Filho, Vice President FIEMG; Marianne Winfield, Executive Director Greater Fort Lauderdale Sister Cities; Olavo Machado Junior, President FIEMG; and Consul General in Miami, Ambassador Helio Vitor Ramos Filho.

Consul General of Brazil in Miami, Ambassador Filho, welcomed President Machado and Vice President Filho from the Federation of Industries of the State of Minas Gerais to Miami on April 30, 2015.

The Program was organized in collaboration with the Brazilian Consulate in Miami and Adam Peters, Trade Development Specialist for the Miami Dade Office of Economic Development and International Trade. The seminar included presentations from FIEMG and APEXBrasil and was well attended by the local business community. Marianne Winfield, Executive Director, Greater Fort Lauderdale Sister Cities was in attendance to advance the relationships between Minas Gerais and Sister City Belo Horizonte, Capital city of Minas Gerais.

The visiting delegation included several business owners interested in meeting with local businesses to develop partnerships for future business ventures.

The Federation of Industries of the State of Minas Gerais (FIEMG) is made up of an extensive network of trade unions and more than 80,000 companies. It has 10 regional offices strategically located throughout the state, which provide assistance in a number of technical fields such as fiscal counseling, tax law, labor environment and social responsibility, and opening business opportunities for the entire industry

Greater Fort Lauderdale Sister Cities has 2 sister cities in Brazil, Belo Horizonte and San Sebastiao. For more information, please visit www.fiemg.com.br or info@gflsci.org