Miss Annie Wheeler's Heirloom Plant Sale

Saturday, March 26

9 am – 2 pm

Pond Spring: The General Joe Wheeler Home, Hillsboro, Alabama

Visit Miss Annie's Heirloom Plant Sale and purchase a plant from this historic garden! Special to the sale are boxwood propagated from the English Dwarf variety the General's daughter, Miss Annie, planted on the Pond Spring site nearly hundred years ago. Other plants available for sale will include daffodils, irises, daylilies, spider lilies, spirea, forsythia, and more – all harvested from our historic gardens. Proceeds from the plant sale will fund future restoration efforts on the fifty-acre site.

"Miss Annie Wheeler loved her gardens and cultivated them for over sixty years," said Kara Long, site director of Pond Spring. "We are lucky that each spring Miss Annie's original plantings still grow and flourish on the site she designed."
