

MEET OUR BUILDER

Majestic Lifestyle Builders is an Atlanta based Homebuilding company that is deep rooted with the highest level of Integrity, Excellence and Values. Owned and operated by the Johnson Development Corp., a team of professionals that for over three decades has set the standard as the nation's finest and award winning master planned community developers has set their eyes on homebuilding. Bringing their nationally acclaimed award winning model to the homebuilding industry was a natural next step.

Under the leadership of Tom Powers, General Manager and Vice President of Majestic Lifestyle Builders, Tom brings a fresh analytical background with extensive experience operating profitable master planned communities including the Georgia Pacific Development Co. and Bluegreen Communities. Tom was honored as one of the Top Most Influential Golf Developers by Golf Magazine. He is a member of the Urban Land Institute and serves on ULI's Community Development Council – Silver and he belongs to the National Association of Homebuilders. Tom's drive and proven leadership skills shall lead the team to the same level of accomplishments that the Johnson Development Corp. is known for delivering.

Tom is joined by 30 year Homebuilding Veteran and Georgia native, John Ogilvie who owned and managed a successful Homebuilding company and is known for his uncompromised level of customer service. John brings a diversified background not only in New Construction but in remodeling, office, light commercial and retail construction. John is a graduate of Georgia Tech and had a distinguished US Naval career on the USS Independence Aircraft Carrier. John's level of expertise is highlighted by his strong listening skills and desire to provide a home of unsurpassed quality. As a Licensed Georgia Builder, his skill set earned him a place in the Preferred Builder Programs led by The Atlanta Division of the Johnson Development Corp. at Towne Lake Hills, Bridgemill and Lake Arrowhead, where he built over 800 homes.

John says the most satisfying aspect of his job has always been in creating communities and homes. "You have physical evidence of your efforts," he says, which is very rewarding and "I feel very fortunate to provide housing to our customers."

John lives in Canton with his wife Brenda and has three adult children and one grandson. He enjoys building reproduction furniture and replicas of Newport and Queen Anne period pieces in his spare time.

