

Fall, 2015 Course Announcement

Peace and Conflict Studies (PACS) 2500: Introduction to Peace and Conflict Studies

- PACS 2500-001: 3 Credits
- Tuesday / Thursday: 3:30 – 4:45 PM
- Explains the critical role that conflict-management plays in solving problems at the global, national, local, and interpersonal levels.
- Teaches key concepts and theories in peacebuilding and conflict management.
- Course material includes lectures, readings, videos, discussions, written assignments, and practical exercises.
- Students develop individual projects based on conflict situations they find most interesting and important.
- Introductory course for CU's PACS Certificate Program.
- For further information, see: <http://peacestudies.colorado.edu/>