An adult dog with an orbital foreign body and secondary abscessation.

Transverse CT Image: Shows a large left orbital abscess extending extending to the temporal muscle (asterisks *), causing marked exophthalmos.

Transverse CT Image: Orally penetrating very dense glass material FB (arrow) in the left pterygoid region ie below the sphenoid bone causing the swelling and exophthalmos.
Transverse CT Image: Post contrast enhancement (arrows) of glass foreign body in this dog, demonstrating the surrounding soft tissue inflammation.

Wooden Foreign Body in the Retropharyngeal Tissues of a Dog

Transverse CT of the Wooden Foreign Body (1) FB (2) Surrounding Abscess Transverse CT Post Contrast (1) FB (2) Abscess (3) Surrounding Abscess Wall *

* Source Veterinary Computed Tomography (Wiley-Blackwell)