

ADELPHI UNIVERSITY EMERGENCY SERVICES PROGRAMS

VOLUNTEER EMERGENCY SERVICES SCHOLARSHIPS

$2500 Volunteer Emergency Services Scholarships are available to members of the New York State volunteer emergency services community who have demonstrated dedication to the profession and to their community.

This annual award is open to any New York State emergency services volunteer and is awarded based on the need of those who qualify. Applicants are required to submit an application, two letters of recommendation and an essay describing how a college degree will help them better serve their community. This is a time when volunteers are few and the dangers are great; thus, University College decided to reward current emergency services volunteers by creating the Volunteer Emergency Services Scholarship. In doing this, it also hopes to encourage more people to volunteer.

For EMS week 2013 Adelphi waved the application fee to the Emergency Services Administration degree program and providing a free review of credits for prospective students.

EMERGENCY SERVICES SUMMER CAMP

From August 5 to 9, 2013, Adelphi is running a one week intensive program intended to introduce the field of emergency services to high school students in grades 9 to 12. The course teaches basic principles followed by emergency responders and how they enter these fields. They will meet current and former FDNY and Long Island firefighters, paramedics, EMTs and emergency managers; visit local fire departments, hospitals and offices of emergency management. Students will also receive CPR and first aid/AED training and certification.

Tuition:

Residential option: $1500 includes room and board, transportation to events, tickets to performances and events and meal card.

Commuter option: $1100 includes transportation to events, tickets to performances and events and meal card.
