

ANNOUNCEMENT FROM MC DRAMA !!!

The Malden Catholic Drama Club is proud to announce the Fall play, Fay and Michael Kanin's "RASHOMON", a powerful, timely, and dramatic exploration of humanity's choice between good and evil.

THE STORY: The time is 10th century Japan. A Samurai warrior, traveling with his wife is killed and his wife attacked. A well-known and infamous criminal is arrested and tried for the crimes. During the brigand's trial, three people testify to differing versions of the events, leading to the conclusion that the truth is often clouded by how each individual sees it. A Buddhist monk, a woodcutter and a wigmaker serve as the collective conscience of the play, as they struggle with their own demons in the process.
