

Heather Bell

Heather is an Immigration Consultant with Bell Alliance Lawyers & Notaries Public, a boutique law firm in Vancouver. Since 2008, she has been helping individuals, families and businesses come to Canada. Her areas of focus are the Provincial Nominee Program, Express Entry, Family Sponsorship, Business Expansions to Canada, Temporary Foreign Workers and Students. Heather has a degree in Political Science from University of British Columbia, Masters in International Human Resource Management from the University of Manchester and completed her Immigration Consultancy course at Ashton College. In 2011, she joined Bell Alliance to launch an immigration division of their firm. Speaking engagements include: “Doing Business in Canada” with Lorman Education Services in Seattle, USA; MacDonald Realty Annual Convention; ExpoPlaza Latina on “How to Fill the Labour Gap for Mining and Construction Industries”; and Vancouver’s GreenTech Exchange “Attracting GreenTech Innovators and Talent