

Roxanne Jessome

Roxanne is a seasoned executive recruiter in Canada, having worked for over 10 years with employers all across the country seeking qualified individuals to fill key management positions within their organizations. In 2008, she expanded the horizons of her recruitment expertise by assisting Canadian employers with hiring foreign workers for positions of all skill levels. Travelling to countries all over the world to source qualified workers, she also ensures that ALL of the Canadian employers she works with abide by the Labour Laws and Employment Standards of Canada and its' provinces.