

National Indian Education Association

Students at Cuts Wood School of the Piegan Institute

NIEA invites tribal leaders, language stakeholders, and immersion schools to Capitol Hill for a day of advocacy and information-sharing to protect and advance Native language immersion schools.

CALL TO ACTION

Legislative Advocacy Day
Stand Together for Native Language Immersion Schools

Support the Native Language Immersion Student Achievement Act:
S. 1948, HR 4214

Support the Native American Languages Reauthorization Act for reauthorization of Esther Martinez:
S. 2299

Wednesday, July 30, 2014
Senate Visitors Center Rm. 208
Capitol Visitors Center,
Washington, DC
9:00-11:30 AM

Congressional members, tribal leaders, and Native stakeholders invited to speak.

Individual congressional visits will follow morning session.
Email niea@niea.org to attend!