Robert Bazemore, Jr. Named Pennsylvania Bio Chairman-elect

WAYNE, PA—Pennsylvania Bio, the only statewide trade association representing the Commonwealth’s life science industry, today announced Robert Bazemore, Jr. as the association’s Chairman-elect. Bazemore is President of Janssen Biotech, Inc. and has been an active member of Pennsylvania Bio’s Board since 2010. He assumes the role of Pennsylvania Bio Chairman January 1, 2014.

“I am honored to have the opportunity to work closely with Rob over the coming months as he prepares to become our next Chairman,” said Vin Milano, Chairman of Pennsylvania Bio’s Board of Directors. “His experience, leadership and commitment to the life sciences industry will enhance the organization’s effectiveness as, together, we make Pennsylvania the most attractive location in the United States for operating a life sciences company.”

“On behalf of the Board of Directors and staff of Pennsylvania Bio, we look forward to having Rob as our Chairman, beginning in 2014,” said Pennsylvania Bio President Christopher Molineaux. “Rob is a proven strategist who Pennsylvania Bio members can expect to help propel their trade association to new heights.”

Rob has more than 20 years of domestic and global industry experience in strategic marketing, brand marketing, medical affairs and field sales. He began his Janssen career at Centocor in 2002 and served as Worldwide Vice President, Immunology Franchise, where he chaired the Immunology Therapeutic Area Operating Committee (TAOC).

In addition, Rob serves as a member of the Janssen North America Leadership Team (NALT) and is Chairman of the Janssen Sustainability Council, where he has global responsibility for guiding sustainability initiatives across Janssen in support of people’s health and well-being, the planet and the business.

Rob earned a Master of Business Administration from Tulane University and a Bachelor of Science degree in Biochemistry from the University of Georgia.

About Pennsylvania Bio

Pennsylvania Bio is the state-wide trade association for the life sciences in Pennsylvania and serves as a catalyst to ensure Pennsylvania is the global leader in the life-sciences by creating a cohesive community that unites our biotechnology, medical device, diagnostic, pharmaceutical, research, and financial strengths.
