

CLEAN WATER INDIANA:

SOIL HEALTH FIELD DAY

Pulaski County

A day of discussion on the basics of Cover Crops, Soil Health and their importance in Farming Operations.

Saturday, October 3rd

10:00 AM—3:00 PM EDT

10:00 AM—Registration & Welcome—Pulaski County Highway Garage

10:15 AM—Basics of Soil Health by Celia Tharp, District Conservationist

11:00 AM—Lunch

11:45 AM—Depart for Field Sites (Transportation will be provided*)

The site is located 3 miles south of Winamac on CR 100W 1/2 mile south of CR 300S

12:00 PM—Cover Crop Plot Tour by Jamie Scott, Cover Crop Expert

1:00 PM—Rainfall Simulator by Hans Kok, Conservation Consultant

2:00 PM—Pit Dig by Dan Perkins, The Cover Crop Guy

RSVP to the Pulaski County SWCD by September 25th if attending all activities, including lunch*

Call (574) 946-3243, ext 3 or email pulaski-swcd@iaswcd.org to RSVP or for more information.

*If you wish to provide your own transportation to the site you may do so.

Those people NOT attending the morning soil health talk or lunch do not need to RSVP.