

KDS SENIOR AWARDS DAY

Senior Awards Day is a time to recognize graduating KDS seniors for their achievements and to award them scholarships which will enable them to pursue their future goals. On Friday, May 20th, approximately $795,810 in scholarships was presented to 67 deserving KDS graduates. The scholarship totals with their sources are as follows:

- ❑ $632,060– Scholarships from Colleges and Universities
- ❑ $112,750– Scholarships sponsored by the DAR
- ❑ $51,000– Scholarships sponsored by the community/foundations

Sixty-seven members of the KDS Class of 2016 were honored with scholarships and awards.

NSDAR Chaplain General Ann S. Crider was on hand to present the NSDAR National Scholarships. She is shown here presenting the Ida Mae Cox Otis Scholarship to Auburn Hammons.

KDS graduates Fallon Lalor, Matthew Foster, and Ben Eller earned scholarships to the University of Alabama in Birmingham which were presented by Anna Bouska of UAB.

(Right) California State Regent Carol O. Jackson presented the Dredla-Sanderson Foundation Scholarships totaling $46,500 to 32 gradates. Shown here are Mrs. Jackson and Jaret Guffey who received one of the scholarships.

Forty-eight special awards were given as well, totaling more than $12,275. These awards recognized the students for not only their academic achievements, but also their service, their attitudes and their commitment to excellence.

Drew Altman was one of the two recipients of the Minnie Matherly Whitaker Memorial Music Awards which were presented by Shirley Whitaker-Burba and Glenna Whitaker in memory of their mother.

NSDAR Reporter General Mindy T. Kammeyer was on hand to assist with the presentation of several awards. She is shown here presenting the Margaret Bartlett Whiteford English Award to Fallon Lalor.

KDS Board Chairman Peggy S. Johnson presented the Stephens Chapter Student Government Leadership Award to SGA President Erin Sutphin.