

KDS High School Celebrates Homecoming Week

School spirit at KDS is running high this year with a week of Homecoming Spirit activities culminating in the crowning of the Homecoming Queen and a victory over the Westminster Christian High School football team. The Friday night game and festivities capped off a spirit-filled week of wacky dress-up days, building of floats, and decorating of hallways and doors. The homecoming parade and bonfire were, unfortunately, rained out. But the floats were displayed around the perimeter of the stadium and the powder puff football game was moved into the Burkey Center gym. This fun-filled week gave students an opportunity to express their school spirit to classmates and the community.

Matthew Foster was chosen as the 2015 KDS Homecoming King. Baylie Bell was crowned KDS Homecoming Queen.

The 2015 KDS Homecoming Court consisted of these beautiful ladies. From left: Sophomore Annessa Wrenn, Senior Whitney Wright, Senior Cheyenne Prince, 2015 KDS Homecoming Queen Baylie Bell, Senior Kayla Watson, Senior Maddie Harris, Junior Ragan Stanfield, and Freshman Kennedy Allen.

A new "tradition" that recently began is the students' gathering to sing the KDS Alma Mater at the close of each home football game.

A Homecoming Dance was held in Becker-Horton Hall following the game.

These students were dressed up for travel on "Tacky Tourist Tuesday".

Each day of Spirit Week had a fun theme that students as well as teachers eagerly participated in.

Denise Saint and Tammy Sutton looked great as the Mad Hatter and Mary Poppins.

Kristen Chandler as the Scarecrow and Isabella Clark as Dorothy, both of the Wizard of Oz, looked smart on "Theatrical Day"

A Pac-Man theme on the Freshman float proclaimed, "Game Over, Wildcats!"

The Sophomore Class' float urged everyone to KISS the Westminster Wildcats good bye!

The KDS Cheerleaders also began their celebration of Breast Cancer Awareness Month by using pink pom-poms during all their cheers. They will continue this throughout the month of October.
