

KDS Art Students Compete

These students placed in the Guntersville Arts Show Competition.

From left:

Isabelle Winants: 2nd place in the 11th -12th grade division

Ragan Stanfield: Honorable Mention in the 9th - 10th grade division

Casie Conn: 2nd place in the 9th - 10th grade division

Four KDS students placed in the 2014 Congressional Art Competition, which took place at the Mary G. Hardin Cultural Arts Center in Gadsden, Alabama. The U.S. Congress launched the competition in 1982 to recognize the talents of young Americans. As a part of the program, senior Kylee Troup's piece, along with other winning entries from around the nation, will be displayed at the Capitol for one year.

(left) Kylee Troup's artwork earned first place in the mixed media category and will be on display in the Capitol Building for one year.

(right) Ragan Stanfield placed 2nd in the mixed media category.

(left) Isabelle Winants placed 2nd in the painting category.

(right) Anna Parrish placed 3rd in the mixed media category.

