August is “What Will Your Legacy Be?” Month

It is a time for reflection on our past and present actions with intention to make positive changes that will affect generations.

Here are a few tips to help in the creation of your legacy...

#1 Make good friendships.

“Distant Neighbors: The Selected Letters of Wendell Berry and Gary Snyder” is a record of a 40-year correspondence between two of America’s greatest poets and intellectuals. It is a testament to friendship, good manners and the lost art of letter writing.

#2 Have a compassionate heart.

In “The Compassionate Community” Jonathan Miller gives us all a clarion call to a vision of compassion that seeks to reach beyond our political divides, our religious factions, and the many forces that divide us, to a deeper unity underlying our humanity.

#3 Live life to it’s fullest!

Those of you who are familiar with Ed McClanahan know that he is a master of comic fiction and humorous essays. “I Just Hitched In From The Coast” is a new collection of previously published writing that includes some of each.
