

Dr. Manning, Prominent Educator, Speaker, Author - Women's Month Keynote

By Ann Haynes

Nashville, Tn. The keynote speaker concluding Women's Month at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church is Dr. Pam Manning, a former Nashvillian. Dr. Manning is a nationally recognized authority in education and will review her book, "My Child Would Never Do That! She will speak at the 11 A.M. and 12:30 pm service at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, 949 TS Jackson Avenue on March 29, 2015.

Dr. Pamela Manning attended public and private schools in Nashville, received a B.S. degree from Middle Tennessee State University, Master's from Hampton University and Ph.D. from St. Louis University in St. Louis, Missouri.

Dr. Manning's career included speech pathologist, teacher, principal superintendent of schools, program manager for the Military Child Development Program in Bad Krueznach, Germany. Currently she is Assistant Professor in the Doctoral Graduate Education Program at McKindree University in Lebanon, Illinois.

Her many awards Superior Performance Award

Dr. Pam Manning

from the U.S. Army as Program Director in Early Childhood for Child Care Centers, Golden Apple Award for Teaching, Sandra L. Bailey Award for Teaching Autistic Children, Citizen of the Year Award from Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Distinguished Mother Award from Jack and Jill of America, Inc.,

See MANNING, 12A