

news release
for immediate release

Evergreen/Washelli at Bothell welcomes Steve Wetmore

Bothell, WA. (July 29, 2013) —

Evergreen/ Washelli at Bothell is pleased to announce and welcome the arrival of Steve Wetmore as the new sales manager. Steve has been affiliated with Evergreen/ Washelli for the last four years and will now have an office at our funeral home in Bothell. He will also assist families with cemetery needs at Evergreen/ Washelli Memorial Park located in North Seattle as well as Abbey View Memorial Park located in Brier.

Steve and his family have resided in Woodinville for over 20 years. Having raised a family here, Steve and his wife Carol enjoy a wide network of community ties through schools, athletics, golf and gardening.

Steve will focus on helping people with pre-planning their cemetery, burial and cremation wishes as well as working with Kevin Smith, Funeral Home Manager and Funeral Director, when a death occurs. "Together, Kevin and I will treat every family equally, in a caring and compassionate manner," says Steve. "Our belief system is simple – every family, every option, every time."

The Bothell Funeral Home was established in 1956 and has continued under Evergreen/ Washelli from 1999 to current. Under Steve and Kevin's experienced leadership, Evergreen/ Washelli at Bothell offer a comfortable atmosphere and a large flexible gathering space for Life Celebrations. We are located at 18224 103rd Avenue NE, Bothell, a half block north of Main Street and are glad to be part of the Bothell community.

For more information, contact Steve Wetmore at 425-486-1281 or swetmore@washelli.com.