

The Dating and Relationship Group MEETING

Water Garden Business Center
23421 South Pointe Drive, Suite 130
Laguna Hills, CA 92653 949-338-4388

Facilitated by James Tobin, Ph.D.

Licensed Psychologist PSY 22074

This group is for men and women who would like to explore their relational lives. The challenges, ambivalences and emotional storms encountered in the quest for establishing and maintaining intimate relationships will be our central focus. In each group, Dr. Tobin will present didactic material then facilitate an open discussion among group members. The group culture will be supportive yet, over time, candid, direct feedback will gradually be promoted so that group members will gain access to blindspots that may hinder their capacity to connect and love/be loved. This group is appropriate for singles, divorced persons, married persons, and those who are involved in a significant relationship.

The group meets the first and third Saturday of every month, 12:00 to 1:15 PM, at the Water Garden Business Center (see address above). The fee for each session is $25.00. Persons interested in attending should contact Dr. Tobin to arrange a brief screening interview conducted to ensure appropriateness for the group.
