

Meet Ryan Fisher, Technician at Techmode:

Q: When you are not at Techmode, what do you like to do?

A: Spend time with family. Go up north. Play guitar. Listen to albums. Binge watch TV. Tigers Games. Eat.

Q: You can eat just one food for the rest of your life. What is it?

A: There is absolutely no way I could answer this question. I like food too much to pick just one. This is almost like asking me what my favorite song is. Impossible.

Q: What's your favorite drink?

A: Sparkling water. I am addicted.

Q: Who inspires you?

A: Wife/Son/Daughter. They inspire me to work hard, laugh, enjoy life.

Q: What's your favorite tech device?

A: My phone. I find myself using it more and more compared to other tech devices. I really only use a laptop and my phone for most work or entertainment related activities.

Q: What do you like most about yourself?

A: Work ethic. Ability to focus.

Q: What's your favorite movie quote?

A: "Mr. Madison, what you've just said is one of the most insanely idiotic things I have ever heard. At no point in your rambling, incoherent response were you even close to anything that could be considered a rational thought. Everyone in this room is now dumber for having listened to it. I award you no points, and may God have mercy on your soul."

Q: You are stranded on a desert island for the rest of your life. You can bring one item that is not electronic. What do you choose?

A: A lighter or some other tool to make fire.

Q: You won $20 million in the lottery. What is your first impractical purchase?

A: Vacation. A long one.

Q: What is the last movie you went to see without your kids?

A: My wife and I don't go to the movies much without the kids. It's hard for me to even remember. American Hustle?
