MICHAEL BRUCE CURRY (born March 13, 1953), is currently the Bishop of North Carolina and the Presiding Bishop Elect of the Episcopal Church. He was the first African American bishop to lead a southern diocese of the Episcopal Church. On June 27, 2015, he was elected on the first ballot to serve a nine-year term as Presiding Bishop, the top elected position in the denomination. He will formally take office on November 1, 2015, succeeding the current Presiding Bishop, Katharine Jefferts Schori. He is the first African American elected to the position.

Letter from President Barack Obama.....(text of letter):

Dear Bishop Curry,

As you prepare to begin serving as Presiding Bishop, I send warm congratulations.

Since our nation's earliest days, faith communities across our country have shown us how a willingness to believe and a dedication to care for others can enrich our lives. Your leadership over the years has reflected your powerful vision for a more inclusive tomorrow. Guided by your commitment to a future of greater compassion and opportunity, I trust you will continue to use your gifts to bring people of all faiths and backgrounds together to realize the America we know is possible.

Again, congratulations. I wish you all the best. As we all do!
