

Vicki Flier Hudson, keynote speaker and Chief Collaboration Officer for Highroad Global Services, Inc prepares people to live, work, negotiate and build teams across cultures. Vicki has helped countless large-sized corporations have successful operations between India, Europe, and the United States. She is the author of the book Zen and the Art of Offshoring, and a recipient of Kennesaw State University's Instructor of the Year award for International Programs. Vicki is a certified administrator of the Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI) and the Cultural Detective methodology. Previously, in Atlanta, Georgia, Vicki supervised and conducted training for Distribution and Manufacturing for Immucor, Inc., a worldwide blood bank automation company with affiliates throughout the globe. She also spent several years as a software analyst in the company's I.T. department. In the past, Vicki has lived and/or worked in Belgium, Canada, China, France, Germany, India, Nepal and Thailand. She has survived a fifty-five hour train ride across India and ridden a rickshaw, a camel, a cement truck and buses all over the globe. She has traveled in several countries including Austria, Costa Rica, Czech Republic, England, Greece, Israel, Jordan, Mexico and Panama. She has brought cultural competency programs to Procter & Gamble, CIBA Vision, Ceridian Corporation, Intercontinental Hotels Group, Siemens Healthcare, Emory University School of Medicine, Philips Electronics, The Carter Center and many more.

Vicki may be reached at:

E-mail: vicki@highroaders.com

Phone: 770-936-9209

Web: www.highroaders.com