“Food for Thought”

“I don't know what your destiny will be, but one thing I know: the only ones among you who will be really happy are those who have sought and found how to serve.”

— Albert Schweitzer

“And still, after all this time, The sun never says to the earth, “You owe Me.” Look what happens with A love like that, It lights the Whole Sky.” — Hafez

Why Do Good ?

Why Do Good? Susan Barry poses this question in the Sunday (9/27/15) edition of the Courier Journal. Barry is the president and CEO of the Community Foundation of Louisville. She says, “It’s a simple question that speaks to the very core of our humanity. For many doing good is rooted in religious beliefs or moral standards. Doing good is the right thing to do.”

At Unity of Louisville, the multitude of activities listed as sacred service programs (volunteer activities) are a combination of new activities as well as programs with history. In the case of all, each is designed in some way to support each of us on our spiritual journeys.

Interestingly enough, when we “do good”, when we get involved and serve another, we change. We reaped innumerable benefits. One cannot buy compassion, empowerment, or an attitude of inclusiveness. When one reaches out to offer service, the return is two-fold. Unity of Louisville has over 30 individual activities under 15 categories with a number of “emerging ideas” being considered. Much of what occurs at Unity of Louisville is conducted by volunteer service—people serving “behind the scenes”, rarely being thanked because we don’t know what and all they do. What we do know is that their service is not for recognition. In serving, they are different, receiving blessing upon blessing.

Are you repeating the rewards of service? Let’s talk. Let’s find the right place for you.

With our THOUGHTS
 we make the
 —Buddha

"All things appear and disappear because of the concurrence of causes and conditions. Nothing ever exists entirely alone; everything is in relation to everything else." —Buddha

"However many holy words you read, however many you speak, what good will they do you if you do not act on upon them?" — Buddha

"An idea that is developed and put into action is more important than an idea that exists only as an idea." — Buddha
