

Lenten Self Evaluation

Print your name in all of the blank spaces. Most likely you may feel uneasy reading some of these statements with your name in them. You might realize that the statement does not describe you. Now that you have inserted your name on each line go back and place a check mark on each box where you see one of your short comings. Sadly some of us may end up with many check marks. Next, pray over this list and ask God to reveal just one area for you to concentrate on improving during Lent. God calls all of us to a lifetime of progressive and continuous conversion. Each time you feel like you have improved on the one of these areas simply move on to the next one. Remember this is a life-long process.

- _____ is patient
- _____ is kind
- _____ is not jealous,
- _____ is not pompous
- _____ is not inflated
- _____ is not rude
- _____ does not seek his/her own interests
- _____ is not quick-tempered
- _____ does not brood over injury
- _____ does not rejoice over wrongdoing

Don't forget to BE BOLD and share the one area that God has put on your heart to work on with another Christian who can hold you accountable.
